The portfolio management team will provide an overview of current market conditions and an update on utility sectors, along with a review of DPG's investment strategy. The conference call will be available at 800-917-9975 if calling from within the U.S. or 212-231-2900 from outside the U.S. A replay of the call will be available through October 4, 2011 at 800-633-8284 if calling from within the U.S. or 402-977-9140 if calling from outside the U.S. (reservation number 21537878).

DPG, a closed-end fund, began trading on the New York Stock Exchange on July 27, 2011, following a public offering that raised $735 million. The initial public offering was led by Wells Fargo Securities, Citi, Morgan Stanley, UBS Investment Bank, and Ameriprise Financial Services, Inc.

The fund seeks to provide shareholders with total return, resulting primarily from a high level of current income, with an emphasis on tax-advantaged dividend income, and growth in current income, and secondarily from capital appreciation, by investing in equities of domestic and foreign utility companies in the electric, gas, water, telecommunications, and midstream energy sectors.
