Logitech Receives Additional Extension from SIX Swiss Exchange for Publishing FY 2014 Annual Report

LAUSANNE, Switzerland--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Logitech International (SIX:LOGN) (Nasdaq:LOGI) today announced that the SIX Swiss Exchange has granted the Company an additional extension - until Oct. 31, 2014 - for publishing and submitting its Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2014. Logitech's Annual Report was originally scheduled to be published by July 31, 2014, and the SIX Swiss Exchange had previously granted an interim extension until Aug. 29, 2014.

As previously disclosed, Logitech's Audit Committee, with the assistance of independent advisors, is conducting an independent investigation of certain accounting matters related to the Company's previously issued financial statements. Related to the Audit Committee's investigation, the Company is performing additional work associated with its Fiscal Year 2014 Annual Report on Form 10-K, which might result in adjustments to the previously issued financial statements. Due to the investigation and the additional work being performed, Logitech has not yet filed its Fiscal Year 2014 Annual Report on Form 10-K with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and this delay also impacts the Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2014 that is published and submitted to the SIX Swiss Exchange.

The SIX Swiss Exchange reserves the right to suspend trading of Logitech shares if Logitech does not publish its Annual Report by Nov. 3, 2014 at 7:30 a.m. Central European Time.

Logitech continues to devote significant resources to complete and file all required periodic reports with the SEC and SIX Swiss Exchange as soon as possible following the completion of the investigation.

The SIX Swiss Exchange has requested that Logitech publish the following information:
