Logitech Announces Retirement of Erh-Hsun Chang

NEWARK, Calif. & MORGES, Switzerland--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Logitech International (SIX: LOGN) (Nasdaq: LOGI) today announced that board member Erh-Hsun Chang will retire, effective September 4, 2013, and will not seek re-election to the Logitech board of directors.

Mr. Chang has served on the Logitech board of directors since 2006 and was previously on the company's management team from 1995 to 2006, having served earlier with the company from 1986 to 1988.

"On behalf of Logitech's board of directors, employees and shareholders, I wish to thank Erh-Hsun Chang for his many years of service to Logitech," said Guerrino De Luca, Logitech's chairman of the board. "He was the leader for our global operations and led our entry into manufacturing in China, which was pivotal for our business momentum that began in the late nineties. As a board member, Erh-Hsun has been a key senior advisor for Logitech across a wide spectrum of business issues. We will miss Erh-Hsun's counsel and wish him well in his retirement."
