

The Container Store Group, Inc.
Nominating and Corporate Governance
Committee Charter
(As of August 2023)

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) is to identify individuals qualified to become Board members consistent with criteria approved by the Board, to recommend that the Board select the director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders, to develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines and principles and to oversee the evaluation of the Board.

II. COMPOSITION

The Committee must consist of at least two directors, each of whom must satisfy the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) except as otherwise permitted by applicable NYSE rules. Committee members must be appointed and may be removed, with or without cause, by the Board. Unless a Chair is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

III. MEETINGS, PROCEDURES AND AUTHORITY

The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company’s bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee has sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates, including sole authority to approve such search firm’s fees and other retention terms. The Committee has the authority to retain any other advisors that the Committee believes to be desirable and appropriate and has the authority to approve related fees and retention terms. In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Committee, and the Company’s bylaws.

IV. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Director Nominees

Except where the Company is legally required by contract, bylaw or otherwise to provide third parties with the right to nominate directors, the Committee will (i) identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board and ensure that the Board has the requisite expertise and that its membership consists of persons with sufficiently diverse and independent backgrounds, and (ii) recommend to the Board the nominees for election to the Board at the next annual meeting of shareholders, and the persons to be elected by the Board to fill any vacancies on the Board.

B. Criteria for Selecting Directors

The criteria to be used by the Committee in recommending directors and by the Board in nominating directors are as set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

C. Board Committee Structure and Membership

The Committee will annually review the Board committee structure and recommend to the Board for its approval directors to serve as members of each committee.

D. Board Leadership Structure

The Committee will periodically review the Board leadership structure to assess whether it is appropriate given the specific characteristics and circumstances of the Company and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.

E. Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Committee will develop and recommend to the Board the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee will, from time to time as it deems appropriate, review and reassess the adequacy of such corporate governance guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

F. Board Evaluations

The Committee will oversee the annual self-evaluation of the Board and its committees.

G. Other Corporate Governance Matters

The Committee may make recommendations to the Board regarding governance matters, including, but not limited to, the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws, and the charters of the Company's other committees.

H. ESG Matters

The Committee shall periodically review, and provide oversight with respect to, the Company's strategy, initiatives and policies concerning corporate social responsibility, including environmental, social, and governance matters (with the Compensation and Culture Committee having primary responsibility for matters relating to human capital management and management development).

I. Reports to the Board of Directors

The Committee must report regularly to the Board regarding the activities of the Committee.

J. Committee Self-Evaluation

The Committee must at least annually perform an evaluation of the performance of the Committee.

K. Review of this Charter

The Committee must periodically review and reassess this Charter and submit any recommended changes to the Board for its consideration.

V. DELEGATION OF DUTIES

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee has the authority to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.
