American Eagle Outfitters, Inc. Announces Promotions and Expansion of Leadership Team

Susan McGalla Promoted to Oversee American Eagle Inc.'s Portfolio of Brands; Laura Dubin Wander Named President of MARTIN + OSA

WARRENDALE, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--March 29, 2007--American Eagle Outfitters, Inc. (NYSE:AEO) today announced key promotions and an expansion of its leadership team. On the heels of record annual earnings and profits, the new structure is designed to fuel ongoing growth and maintain the company's ability to deliver outstanding results through on-trend assortments, a high quality to price value ratio, and operational discipline.

Susan McGalla is promoted to president and chief merchandising officer of American Eagle Outfitters, Inc. In this new role, Ms. McGalla will add MARTIN + OSA, the company's new sportswear concept targeting 25- to 40-year-old women and men, to her accountabilities. While Ms. McGalla's responsibilities have expanded, the majority of her time will remain with the core AE brand and on aerie by American Eagle.

New to American Eagle Outfitters, Inc., Laura Dubin Wander will join the company as president of MARTIN + OSA this April, reporting directly to Susan McGalla. Ms. Wander will lead the design, merchandising, and marketing, as well as all operational functions for MARTIN + OSA. Most recently, Ms. Wander was president of Dana Buchman and Laundry by Shelli Segal, both divisions of Liz Claiborne Inc. Prior to Liz Claiborne, Ms. Wander worked at Victoria's Secret Catalogue as a director of merchandising, and as a buyer at J.Crew Inc.

“This is an exciting time for American Eagle Outfitters. As we continue to grow as a corporation, it's important that we leverage the talent of our world-class leaders across all aspects of the business, while making strategic additions to complement the existing team," said Jim O'Donnell, chief executive officer of American Eagle Outfitters, Inc. "The promotion of Susan McGalla and the addition of Laura Dubin Wander, along with other key promotions, put our company in an even stronger position for the future." Mr. O'Donnell's position as CEO will remain unchanged.

Other key promotions to set the stage for the company's next level of growth include:

-- Henry Stafford is promoted to senior vice president and chief merchandising officer for the AE Brand, including the men's, women's and accessories divisions, reporting to Ms. McGalla. Over the past three-plus years as vice president and general merchandising manager of AE's men's business, Mr. Stafford has delivered outstanding, consistent results, as well as demonstrated strong leadership at the company. He has led a number of large-scale, cross-functional brand and corporate initiatives, including the implementation of a new product development structure and AE's expansion in Canada. Reporting to Mr. Stafford are women's general merchandise managers, Roberto Croce and Janet Hayes-Daniel, as well as a men's general merchandising manager, who has yet to be selected.

-- Betsy Schumacher is promoted to senior vice president and chief merchandising officer for aerie, reporting to Ms. McGalla. Ms. Schumacher spearheaded the highly successful launch of the aerie brand and will oversee the brand's aggressive expansion in 2007 and beyond.

-- Kathy Savitt will assume the title of executive vice president and chief marketing officer for American Eagle Outfitters, Inc. In this new role, Savitt will oversee multi-channel marketing and the AE Direct (online) business for the company's portfolio of brands, including American Eagle, aerie and MARTIN + OSA. She will continue to report directly to Susan McGalla.
