>> Outpatient Rehabilitation Clinics

Agility operates or manages a network of 88 outpatient rehabilitation clinics in Arizona, California, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, Nevada, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, and Texas. Agility provides a variety of clinical services (e.g., sports, women's health, hand therapy, spine rehabilitation) through various business models.

>> Industrial Worksites

Agility's industrial rehabilitation business segment also provides on-site injury prevention services to employees of corporate clients who operate worksites in the following states: Arizona, Connecticut, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Texas, and Washington. Agility currently provides these services through Work-Fit™.

>> Contract Therapy Services

Agility's contract therapy services segment provides customized outsourced rehabilitation services to hospitals (including inpatient rehabilitation units) and long-term care facilities (including skilled nursing homes and assisted living centers). Agility also provides rehabilitative services, including physical and occupational therapies, and speech pathology services to patients and residents of these facilities.

>> Other Services

Agility provides specialty orthotics products through Biocorrect®, a retail and wholesale business that features a patented foot alignment system. Biocorrect® hand manufactures custom orthotics for a variety of shoe types and customer needs. Our clients include international elite athletes as well as the general population. In addition, Agility provides proprietary management software solutions for hospitals and independent outpatient clinics on a subscription basis. Agility Health also has a proprietary clinical outcomes database with > 275,000 rehabilitation cases; useful for case management, best practice analysis and compliance monitoring.

Mission Statement

The entire Agility Health team is committed to building strong relationships with the patients, clients and partners we serve. We treat each relationship as a partnership defined by open communication, honesty and a bias to action that promotes outstanding performance.

We build our reputation on seeking to honor God, promoting our people and encouraging a passion for service.

We strive to provide a positive work environment and challenge each member of our team to continually develop their skills and enrich their personal lives.
