The J.G. Wentworth Company® Announces $131.8 Million Fixed Rate Asset Backed Securitization

3/22/2017

RADNOR, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The J.G. Wentworth Company® ("J.G. Wentworth" or the "Company") (OTCQX:JGWE), today announced that it has issued through J.G. Wentworth XXXVIII LLC, $131.8 million of Fixed Rate Asset Backed Notes. The notes are collateralized primarily by payments from a pool of rights arising under court ordered structured settlement payment and annuity payment purchase contracts primarily originated by the J.G. Wentworth® and Peachtree Financial Solutions® companies.

"This represents the 45th securitization for J.G. Wentworth and its predecessors, and we are pleased with the execution," said Roger O. Gasper, Chief Financial Officer, J.G. Wentworth. "The robust subscription for this transaction reflects the predictable and consistent returns on our bonds."

"Our first securitization of the year demonstrated continued demand for our product across new and returning investors," Stewart A. Stockdale, Chief Executive Officer of J.G. Wentworth added. "We continue to enhance and diversify our funding sources, which provides the flexibility to execute our transactions to achieve the most favorable outcome."

Deal Terms

The issue consists of two classes of placed notes: $118.2 million Class A Fixed Rate Asset Backed Notes that will pay 3.99%, and $13.6 million Class B Fixed Rate Asset Backed Notes that will pay 5.43%. The notes are rated AAA (DBRS) and Aaa (Moody's); and BBB (DBRS) and Baa2 (Moody's), respectively.

Barclays was the Sole Structuring Advisor and Book-Running Manager. Rewire Securities acted as the Co-Lead manager.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this press release constitute "forward-looking statements." All statements, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements. You can identify such statements because they contain words such as "plans," "expects" or "does expect," "budget," "forecasts," "anticipates" or "does not anticipate," "believes," "intends," and similar expressions or statements that certain actions, events or results "may," "could," "would," "might," or "will," be taken, occur or be achieved. Any statements that refer to expectations or other characterizations of future events, circumstances or results are forward-looking statements.

A number of factors could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from the results expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. These factors should be considered carefully and readers should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements necessarily involve significant known and unknown risks, assumptions and uncertainties that may cause our actual results, performance and opportunities in future periods to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Consideration should also be given to the areas of risk set forth under the heading "Risk Factors" in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and as set forth more fully under "Part 1, Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, as updated by "Part II, Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ending since that date as previously filed with the SEC and under "Part 1, Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 to be filed with the SEC. These risks and uncertainties include, among other things: our ability to execute on our business strategy; our ability to successfully compete in the industries in which we operate; our dependence on the effectiveness of direct response marketing; our ability to retain and attract qualified senior management; any improper use of or failure to protect the personally identifiable information of past, current and prospective customers to which we have access; our ability to upgrade and integrate our operational and financial information systems, maintain uninterrupted access to such systems and adapt to technological changes in the industries in which we operate; our dependence on third parties, including our ability to maintain relationships with such third parties and our potential exposure to liability for the actions of such third parties; damage to our reputation and increased regulation of our industries which could result from unfavorable press reports about our business model; the accuracy of the estimates and assumptions of our financial models; infringement of our trademarks or service marks; our ability to maintain our state licenses or obtain new licenses in new markets; changes in, and our ability to comply with, any applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations governing us, including any applicable federal consumer financial laws enforced by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau; our business model being susceptible to litigation; our ability to continue to purchase structured settlement payments and other financial assets; the public disclosure of the identities and information of structured settlement holders maintained in our proprietary database; our dependence on the opinions of certain credit rating agencies of the credit quality of our securitizations; our ability to complete future securitizations, other financings or sales on favorable terms; the insolvency of a material number of structured settlement issuers; adverse changes in the residential mortgage lending and real estate markets, including any increases in defaults or delinquencies, especially in geographic areas where our loans are concentrated; our ability to grow our loan origination volume, acquire mortgage servicing rights, or MSRs, and recapture loans that are refinanced; changes in the guidelines of government-sponsored entities, or GSEs, or any discontinuation of, or significant reduction in, the operation of GSEs; potential misrepresentations by borrowers, counterparties and other third parties; changes in prevailing interest rates and our ability to mitigate interest rate risk through hedging strategies; our ability to obtain sufficient working capital at attractive rates or obtain sufficient capital to meet the financing requirements of our business; our ability to remain in compliance with the terms of our substantial indebtedness and to refinance our term debt; our ability to raise additional capital as a result of our Class A common stock now being traded on the OTCQX® Market; and our ability to meet the ongoing eligibility standards of the OTCQX® Market.

Except for our ongoing obligations to disclose material information under the federal securities laws, we undertake no obligation to publicly revise any forward-looking statements, to report events or to report the occurrence of unanticipated events unless we are required to do so by law.
