Philanthropic and Environmental Commitments

• Chubb has a rich history of philanthropic engagement. We are committed to investing in the well-being of our local communities through volunteerism, grants, sponsorships, matching gift and scholarship programs.

• The company also has made a commitment to reduce the environmental impact of its global operations.

Charitable/Volunteer Highlights

The company’s foundations made grants and matching gifts of nearly $7.0 million in 2016 to support innovative initiatives around the globe, such as:

• The company’s charitable foundation continues its partnership with The International Rescue Committee, by supporting the IRC’s Jobs to Careers program in the United States. The program provides support and training to refugees who are moving from entry-level jobs to long-term careers on a path to transition out of poverty and into financial security.

Environmental Highlights

Since 2006, the company has reduced GHG emissions nearly 22% per employee.

In 2016, the company earned an A- on CDP’s climate change program ranking. Also in 2016, the company was one of 22 insurers – out of 148 analyzed – to earn a “High Quality” designation for its climate risk disclosures by Ceres.

Chubb’s Philadelphia has achieved LEED “green building” certification. In 2017, Chubb’s Bermuda office became the first on the island to recertify LEED Gold using the LEED Dynamic Plaque to manage its building performance.
