WILLIAM O.S. BALLARD ELECTED TO LIVE NATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

LOS ANGELES, CA – November 20, 2007 – Live Nation (NYSE: LYV), the world's largest live music company, announced today that William O.S. Ballard has joined the company's Board of Directors. A lawyer by training, Mr. Ballard, along with the company's Vice Chairman, Michael Cohl, was a pioneer in the Canadian concert promotion business and is also credited with developing the global touring model.

"Bill's vast knowledge of our core business brings a specific, in depth expertise to our board, complementing the diverse strengths of our other directors," said Michael Rapino, Chief Executive Officer of Live Nation.

A Toronto, Ontario native, Mr. Ballard began his career with the Maple Leaf Gardens Corporation, serving as its Vice President of Corporate Development and director and alternate governor of the National Hockey League. Over the years, Mr. Ballard worked with Mr. Cohl in the live music and ticketing businesses in Canada. He was instrumental in developing the concept of the global tour and extending the global touring business into the promotion and exploitation of ancillary rights to generate incremental revenue streams. Mr. Ballard has also been active in the mining industry in Canada since 1995.
