

COLDPLAY'S "A HEAD FULL OF DREAMS" TOUR SETS ATTENDANCE RECORD IN MEXICO CITY

– Band Ends Latin American Leg of Tour with 10 Sold Out Stadium Performances –

LOS ANGELES, CA (April 19, 2016) – Coldplay's "A Head Full of Dreams" tour, produced by Live Nation Entertainment, set a new attendance record at Mexico City's Foro Sol venue on April 17, 2016 with an attendance of 67,451. The band's previous appearances at the venue on April 15th and 16th set attendance records for consecutive nights culminating in Sunday's record breaking show.

The shows capped off a remarkable Latin American tour for Coldplay where the group sold out 10 stadiums and performed to more than half a million fans, beating attendance records at Foro Sol previously held by Pearl Jam and Los Fabulosos Cadillacs in November 2015.

The world tour will kick off its European leg beginning April 24th in Nice, France, and continue in the US on July 16th at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey.
