Aldridge Completes Yenipazar EIA Report

TORONTO, August 28, 2013. Aldridge Minerals Inc. (TSX Venture: AGM) (“Aldridge” or the “Company”) announced that it has completed the Environmental Impact Assessment Report (“EIA Report”) for its Yenipazar Project in central Turkey. The Company has submitted the EIA Report to the Ministry of the Environment and Urbanization in Turkey, initiating the final stage of the EIA approval process. Aldridge earlier successfully completed an initial application defining the scope of the proposed project as well as a public consultation process.

The completion of the EIA Report, which is based on over two years of baseline studies, fieldwork, and analysis by numerous consultants and the Aldridge team, represents a significant milestone in the development of the Yenipazar Project. Following receipt of the EIA permit, the Company will proceed to apply for construction, operating and other required permits.

About Aldridge

Aldridge is a development stage mining company focused on its wholly owned Yenipazar polymetallic VMS Project (Au, Ag, Cu, Pb, Zn) in Turkey, a country that is committed to developing its natural resources. Aldridge completed the Yenipazar feasibility study and filed the related NI 43-101 compliant technical report in May 2013 and is currently advancing the Project on key aspects including permitting and project financing.
