

Aldridge Minerals Inc. announces director resignation

Wednesday, 07 November 2007

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. Aldridge Minerals Inc. (TSX.V: AGM, Frankfurt WKN: A0CAPB) (the "Company") announced the resignation of Mr. Thomas A. Doyle as a director of the Company effective immediately. Mr. Doyle's resignation was due to the fact that, as a result of his involvement in other activities, he felt that he could no longer offer the Company his full attention. Management of the Company is currently seeking a suitable replacement for Mr. Doyle in advance of its next annual general meeting. The TSX Venture Exchange has not reviewed and does not accept responsibility for the adequacy or accuracy of this news release. For further information please contact:
