Werner Enterprises Hosted Veterans Day Ceremonies

11/12/2015

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), a premier transportation and logistics provider, honored military veterans Wednesday, Nov. 11, at locations throughout the country and hosted Veterans Day ceremonies at its global headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska, and its Indianapolis, Indiana, and Springfield, Ohio, terminals.

Werner representatives speaking at the terminal ceremonies included C.L. Werner, founder, chairman and CEO, and Derek Leathers, president and COO. Werner offered free lunch to all of its professional drivers following the Veterans Day events.

"We are privileged to have so many talented military veterans as associates for our organization and in our industry," said Leathers. "Today, it is our honor to recognize and appreciate the service and sacrifices made by all military veterans on behalf of our freedom, and we will proudly continue to support them as they transition to civilian careers."

Werner, widely acknowledged for its efforts to ease the transition of military veterans into the workplace, was most recently named a "Top 100 Military Friendly® Employer for 2016" and a "Top 50 Military Spouse Employer for 2016" by G.I. Jobs® magazine. The company has made strides with such veteran initiatives as its Professional Truck Driver Apprenticeship that allows veterans to use their benefits to pay for training while receiving on-the-job instruction. Werner has hired more than 6,500 veterans since 2012 and more than 350 veteran spouses since May 2013, surpassing the pledge it made in 2012 under the White House campaign Joining Forces to hire 1,000 veterans per year for the next five years. Werner has pledged to hire 2,200 veterans and 200 veteran spouses in 2015.
