CORRECTING and REPLACING – Werner Enterprises Celebrates National Truck Driver Appreciation Week

9/5/2019

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 05, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- In a release issued under the same headline earlier today by Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), we have been advised by the company that the date in the third paragraph should be "Friday, Sept. 13" rather than "Friday, Sept. 15" as originally issued. The corrected release follows.

Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), a premier transportation and logistics provider, will host celebrations throughout the month of September at its global headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska and at terminals nationwide in recognition of National Truck Driver Appreciation Week.

"Werner looks forward to National Truck Driver Appreciation Week every year as a time to join the nation in celebrating our professional drivers and recognizing them for safely keeping America moving all year," said President and Chief Executive Officer Derek Leathers.

Werner will kick off celebrations on Thursday, Sept. 5, at its terminal in Atlanta, Georgia. Along with providing Werner's professional drivers with complimentary meals and appreciation gifts, Werner will recognize five elite drivers who have achieved rare safety milestones of driving two, three and four million accident-free miles on Friday, Sept. 13, in a ceremony at its global headquarters. After the ceremony, a live remote broadcast of Road Dog Trucking News will air from 1-3 p.m. CDT on SiriusXM channel 146.
