Werner Enterprises Honors Five Professional Drivers For Safety and Humanitarian Achievements

12/9/2015

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), a premier transportation and logistics provider, honored five professional drivers during its Fourth Quarter Associate Recognition Ceremony Dec. 8 at its global headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska.

James Bailey, Michael Blaisdell, James Moses and George Stutts each received 2 million mile accident-free awards, while Clifford Bosecker was presented with a Humanitarian Award for his heroic rescue efforts at the scene of an accident.

"We are honored to recognize these individuals who are not only great drivers, but also great people," said Mike Quick, vice president of Dedicated Operations. "Their professionalism and dedication benefit our company, our customers and the consumers of the products they have delivered in nearly 100 years of combined service."

Werner has had 1,287 drivers who have achieved 1 million accident-free miles, 191 drivers who have reached 2 million accident-free miles, 15 who have attained 3 million accident-free miles, two who have accomplished 4 million accident-free miles and one who has accomplished more than 5 million accident-free miles. Professional Werner drivers who reach safe driving milestones of 1, 2 or 3 million miles are eligible to order a new truck and accessories as part of Werner's three-tiered Million Mile Safe Driver Truck Program.
