Werner Enterprises Announces Management Changes

8/12/2015

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 12, 2015-- Werner Enterprises, Inc. (NASDAQ:WERN) announced the following management changes after its Board of Directors meeting yesterday.

C.L. Werner was elected Chairman and Gary Werner was elected Vice Chairman, after Gary stepped down as Chairman to spend more time with his family. Gary has dedicated his life to the company spending nearly 40 years in a variety of positions at Werner, including President, Vice Chairman and for the last four years, Chairman. Gary will continue with the company as Vice Chairman; Greg Werner will remain CEO and relinquished the position of Vice Chairman. C.L., Gary and Greg will continue to serve on the company's Board of Directors.

C.L. Werner is excited to help the company in its continued quest to grow and overcome some of the industry headwinds, including the driver shortage which is one of the most pressing issues facing the trucking industry today. As founder and Werner's first truck driver, he continues to be focused on making the company the best place for drivers to work as well as implementing new technology to enhance safety.

The Werner family as well as the Board of Directors fully support the new structure.
