Werner Enterprises Named an FL100 Software and Technology Provider

12/19/2013

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 19, 2013-- Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), a premier transportation and logistics company, was named to the tenth annual Food Logistics list of FL100 Software and Technology providers for 2013. The FL100 is comprised of both software providers and equipment and technology companies whose products and services play a significant role in supporting food and beverage supply chains.

"Werner places a high priority on investing in the latest supply chain technologies," said Werner President and COO Derek Leathers. "We always look for ways to enhance supply chain visibility for our customers, as well as advance our regulatory compliance and sustainability initiatives."

Werner earned a spot on the list for its customizable supply chain solutions that offer management of raw materials, finished products, purchase orders, route guide compliance, product recalls and seasonal supply and demand. Werner provides its customers with an added edge through superior technological advantages, including the company's own web-based transportation management systems, network analysis and design tools, mapping and global information systems and site selection tools. Werner is a proven leader in the food and beverage industry, utilizing technology, expertise and its large asset base to help its customers lead the industry.

Food Logistics is published by Cygnus Business Media, a leading diversified business-to-business media company. The publication serves the information needs of executives involved in various aspects of the food and beverage supply chains.
