Werner Enterprises Recognized as a 2015 Top Green Provider

6/25/2015

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 25, 2015-- Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), a premier transportation and logistics provider, recently was named as a 2015 Top Green Provider by Food Logistics magazine. Werner was recognized as an organization that focuses on sustainability in the global food supply chain and exceeds industry standards in its sector.

"As a member of the transportation industry, we maintain our strong commitment to sustainability," said President and COO Derek Leathers. "To be recognized as a Top Green Provider is not only an honor, but also a positive indication that our initiatives align with our goals to improve the environment."

Werner has made significant contributions toward a cleaner, more energy-efficient environment by conserving more than 120 million gallons of fuel since 2007 and reducing its carbon footprint by more than 1.3 million tons. The company incorporates industry-leading sustainability efforts into its business model, including installing diesel-fired heating systems to reduce truck idle time, utilizing aerodynamic trucks, equipping trailers with trailer skirts, using tire inflation systems and implementing the newest diesel technology.

The Top Green Providers list honors organizations that utilize products, services and exemplary leadership to successfully enhance sustainability within the food and beverage industry. This year's list includes grocers, 3PLs, cold storage providers, pallet and packaging manufacturers, software and technology companies and others whose products and services are elevating sustainability to a competitive advantage in our industry. Companies on this year's Top Green Providers list are profiled in the June 2015 print issue of Food Logistics, as well as online at www.foodlogistics.com.
