Werner Enterprises and Senator Deb Fischer Honor Professional Driver with Flag Presentation

2/20/2015

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 20, 2015-- Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ:WERN), a premier transportation and logistics provider, along with U.S. Senator Deb Fischer, today honored professional driver and military veteran David Green with a presentation at its company headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska.

Green recently earned a spot on the prestigious American Trucking Associations (ATA) 2015-2016 America's Road Team, and a flag was flown over the U.S. Capitol in honor of his achievements. Fischer presented the flag, along with a certificate, to him during a ceremony in front of an audience of Werner associates and professional drivers.

"I am proud to be a professional truck driver and represent our industry and Werner on America's Road Team," Green said. "It is an honor to receive this symbol of our country that I volunteered to fight for years ago."

Selected from 31 finalists and thousands of potential applicants, Green will serve as a captain with 18 other professional drivers and travel the country speaking on behalf of the trucking industry and its more than 3 million drivers to communities, news media and public officials while maintaining his job as a full-time professional driver.

A native of Hot Springs, Arkansas, Green has driven with Werner since 1991 and served more than 20 years as a trainer. The U.S. Marine Corps veteran has achieved more than 2 million accident-free miles, has served on Werner's Road Team and currently drives Freedom 2, one of five trucks in Werner's military-themed fleet that travels on regular freight routes in addition to being showcased at truck shows, recruiting events and specific veteran ceremonies to bring awareness to Werner's industry-leading military apprenticeship program.
