

TERANGA GOLD CORPORATION FINANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

This charter (the “Charter”) sets forth the purpose, composition, responsibilities and authority of the Finance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Teranga Gold Corporation (“Teranga”).

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to:

- Teranga’s financial policies and strategies, including capital structure;
- Teranga’s financial risk management practices; and
- proposed issues of securities and the utilization of financial instruments.

2. Composition and Membership

- (a) The Board will appoint the members (“Members”) of the Committee. The Members shall be appointed to hold office until the next annual general meeting of shareholders of Teranga or until their successors are appointed. The Board may remove a Member at any time and may fill any vacancy occurring on the Committee. A Member may resign at any time and a Member will automatically cease to be a Member upon ceasing to be a director.
- (b) The Committee will consist of at least three directors, a majority of whom shall meet the criteria for independence established by applicable laws and the rules of any stock exchanges upon which Teranga’s securities are listed, including Section 1.4 of National Instrument 52-110 - Audit Committees. In addition, each of the independent directors shall be free of any relationship which could, in the view of the Board, reasonably interfere with the exercise of a Member’s independent judgment.
- (c) All Committee Members shall have a working familiarity with corporate finance matters.
- (d) The Board will appoint one of the Members to act as the chairman of the Committee (the “Chairman”). The secretary of Teranga (the “Secretary”) will be the secretary of all meetings and will maintain minutes of all meetings and deliberations of the Committee. If the Secretary is not in attendance at any meeting, the Committee will appoint another person who may, but need not, be a Member to act as the secretary of that meeting.
- (e) The Committee may delegate any or all of its functions to any of its Members or any sub-set thereof, or other persons, from time to time as it sees fit.

3. Meetings

- (a) Meetings of the Committee will be held at such times and places as the Chairman deems necessary. Twenty-four (24) hours advance notice of each meeting will be given to each Member orally, by telephone, by facsimile or email, unless all Members are present and waive notice, or if those absent waive notice before or after a meeting. Members may attend all meetings either in person or by telephone.
- (b) The Chairman, if present, will act as the chairman of meetings of the Committee. If the Chairman is not present at a meeting of the Committee the Members in attendance may select one of their number to act as chairman of the meeting.
- (c) A majority of Members will constitute a quorum for a meeting of the Committee. Each Member will have one vote and decisions of the Committee will be made by an affirmative vote of the majority. The Chairman will not have a deciding or casting vote in the case of an equality of votes. Powers of the Committee may also be exercised by written resolutions signed by all Members.

- (d) The Committee may invite from time to time such persons as it sees fit to attend its meetings and to take part in the discussion and consideration of the affairs of the Committee. The Committee will meet in camera without members of management in attendance for a portion of each meeting of the Committee, if any Member of the Committee so requests.
- (e) In advance of every regular meeting of the Committee, the Chairman, with the assistance of the Secretary, will prepare and distribute to the Members and others as deemed appropriate by the Chairman, an agenda of matters to be addressed at the meeting together with appropriate briefing materials. The Committee may require officers and employees of Teranga to produce such information and reports as the Committee may deem appropriate in order for it to fulfill its duties.

4. Duties and Responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee as they relate to the following matters are to:

(1) Financial Strategy

review material prepared by management regarding Teranga's financial strategy considering current and future capital and operating plans and budgets, Teranga's capital structure, including debt and equity components, current and expected financial leverage, interest rate and foreign currency exposures and, in the Committee's discretion, make recommendations to the Board regarding the same;

(2) Financial Risk Management

review material prepared by management regarding the financial risks arising from Teranga's exposure to changes in commodity prices, interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates and credit, together with any proposed hedging of such exposures, and, in the Committee's discretion, make recommendations to the Board regarding the same;

(3) Financial Transactions

review material prepared by management regarding any proposed issues of equity and debt, including public and private debt, credit facilities with banks and others, hybrid securities and other credit arrangements such as capital and operating leases and, in the Committee's discretion, make recommendations to the Board for consideration; and perform such other duties as may be assigned to it by the Board of Directors from time to time, or as may be required by applicable regulatory authorities or legislation.

(4) Other Duties

5. Reporting

The Chairman will report to the Board at each Board meeting on the Committee's activities since the last Board meeting. The Secretary will circulate the minutes of each meeting of the Committee to the members of the Board.

6. Access to Information and Authority

The Committee will be granted unrestricted access to all information regarding Teranga that is necessary or desirable to fulfill its duties and all directors, officers and employees will be directed to cooperate as requested by members of the Committee. The Committee shall request further and more detailed information from management, where the Committee considers that the information prepared by management in response to clauses 4.1 to 4.3 is incomplete or inadequate, for the purposes of the Committee effectively reporting to the Board on risk management, Teranga's internal control system, Teranga's management of its material business risks or any other similar matter.

The Committee has the authority to retain, at Teranga's expense, independent legal, financial and other advisors, consultants and experts, to assist the Committee in fulfilling its duties and responsibilities at Teranga's expense, including sole authority to retain and to approve any such firm's fees and other retention terms without prior approval of the Board.

7. Annual Committee Review

The Committee shall at least annually evaluate its own performance and report to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee on such evaluation.

8. Review of Charter

The Committee will annually review and assess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for consideration.
