

Corporate Relations | 77 Beale Street | Mail Code B32 | San Francisco, CA 94105 | 1 (415) 973-5930

April 5, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PG&E Corporation Schedules First Quarter 2018 Earnings Release and Conference Call

San Francisco, Calif. – PG&E Corporation (NYSE: PCG) will hold a conference call for members of the financial community on May 3, 2018, at 12:00 p.m. Eastern Time to discuss its first quarter 2018 results. The public can access the conference call via a simultaneous webcast. The link is provided below and will also be available from the PG&E Corporation website.

What: First Quarter 2018 Earnings Call

When: Thursday, May 3, 2018 at 12:00 p.m. Eastern Time

Where: <http://investor.pgecorp.com/news-events/events-and-presentations/default.aspx>

How: Live over the Internet – log on to the web at the address above

If you are unable to participate during the live webcast, the call will be archived at <http://investor.pgecorp.com/news-events/events-and-presentations/default.aspx>.

Alternatively, a toll-free replay of the conference call may be accessed shortly after the live call through May 17, 2018, by dialing (866) 415-9493. International callers may dial (205) 289-3247. For both domestic and international callers, the confirmation code 24650# will be required to access the replay.

Please contact Investor Relations at (415) 972-7080 if you have any questions.

PG&E Corporation (NYSE: PCG) is a Fortune 200 energy-based holding company, headquartered in San Francisco. It is the parent company of Pacific Gas and Electric Company, California's largest investor-owned utility. PG&E serves about 16 million Californians across a 70,000 square-mile service area in Northern and Central California. For more information, visit the Web site at <http://www.pgecorp.com>.