Case No. 14-CR-00175-WHA

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER ADOPTING NEW CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

10
11 This order follows the May 7, 2019 sentencing hearing regarding defendant PG&E's Form
12 violation. In addition to the conditions of probation already in effect, the Court imposes the 13 following new conditions of probation:

- 14 • By no later than July 15, 2019, the PG&E Board of Directors, PG&E's Chief
15 Executive Officer and certain other PG&E senior executive leaders, the Monitor, and 16 Probation shall visit Paradise and San Bruno to gain a firsthand understanding of the 17 harm inflicted on those communities and meet with victims and others stakeholders,
18 such as fire-fighting personnel and/or city officials.
- 19 • A committee of the PG&E Board of Directors shall assume responsibility for tracking
20 progress against PG&E's Wildfire Safety Improvement Plan, as approved by the 21 California Public Utilities Commission, and the new terms of probation imposed on 22 April 3 regarding wildfire safety. The committee is to report in writing to the Board
23 at least quarterly, and also present orally to the Board at least quarterly, PG&E's
24 progress in meeting the terms of the approved Wildfire Safety Improvement Plan and 25 the April 3 terms of probation and, to the extent there are shortfalls, how PG&E will 26 address the shortfalls.
