

Thermo Fisher Scientific Inc. (the "Company")

2015 Annual Report on Political Contributions

The Company is involved in a number of industry groups that support our legislative and regulatory evaluation and advocacy efforts. Pursuant to the Company's Political Contributions Policy, set forth below are the portion of membership dues and other payments made to trade associations to which the Company made annual aggregate payments of more than $25,000 in 2015, that were non-deductible under Section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Association Name	Amount
BayBio	$1,400
BIOCOM	$2,513
Business Roundtable	$66,000
California Healthcare Institute (CHI)	$19,031
Health Industry Distributors Association (HIDA)	$6,682
National Association of Manufacturers (NAM)	$18,700

Set forth below are Company donations, gifts or loans of Company funds, assets, or property to or for the benefit of any political party, political committee, or candidate committee.

Recipient	Amount	Party/Committee
California Healthcare Institute State Political Action Committee	$7,000	California Political Committee
The BIOCOM Political Action Committee	$1,675	California Political Committee
California Republican Party	$3,928	California Political Party
Atkins for Senate 2020	$4,392	California Candidate Committee

Set forth below are Company funds, assets, or property that were used to oppose or support any candidate or influence the general public or any segment thereof, with respect to any ballot referendum.

None

Set forth below are designated contributions to organizations established pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) for the specific purpose of funding political activity that is nondeductible under section 162(e)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

None