Richard Laube to Resign from Logitech Board of Directors

NEWARK, Calif. & MORGES, Switzerland--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Logitech International (SIX: LOGN) (Nasdaq: LOGI) today announced that Richard Laube will resign from Logitech's board of directors to focus exclusively on his role as chief executive officer of Nobel Biocare Holding A.G. Mr. Laube, who has been a member of Logitech's board of directors since 2008, will step down at the conclusion of the company's Annual General Meeting on September 5, 2012 in Lausanne, Switzerland.

"We understand Richard Laube's decision and wish to thank him for his service to Logitech," said Guerrino De Luca, Logitech chairman and chief executive officer. "Mr. Laube has provided valuable counsel in business strategy, brand and marketing, and his contribution will have lasting impact."
