Virtus Investment Partners Announces Appointment of Board Member

2026-08-20

HARTFORD, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Virtus Investment Partners (NYSE: VRTS), which operates a multi-boutique asset management business, today announced that John T. "Jack" Boyce, who has more than 25 years of experience in senior financial leadership roles, has been appointed to the Company's Board of Directors and to its Audit Committee.

Boyce, 66, most recently served as head of North America distribution for Insight Investment, where he was responsible for setting strategic direction, business planning, execution, and business growth. He also established and refined its North American commercial business across institutional and intermediary sales.

"We welcome Jack to our board as he brings extensive experience in the asset management industry and in building client-focused organizations," said Timothy A. Holt, chairman of Virtus' board. "His distribution and operating expertise will be a valuable resource as we continue to focus on growing the Company and delivering long-term shareholder value."

Prior to joining Insight Investment in 2018, Boyce was managing director and head of North American distribution at Standard Life Investments. Earlier, he held senior distribution and leadership roles at PineBridge Investments / AIG Global Investment Corporation, General Electric Asset Management and AEGON / Diversified Investment Advisors. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of Merrimack College and served as Chair from 2021 to 2023. He serves as a board member of the British American Business Council of New England and previously served on the board of the Alzheimer's Association.

He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and received an honorary doctorate in business administration from Merrimack College.
