The G.A.M.E. Forum brings together students, academic professionals, and industry experts in an effort to provide insight into the changing landscape of global financial markets and the investment management industry.

This is Virtus' second year as a participating presenter firm. Terranova, who is a panelist on CNBC's Fast Money program and the author of "Buy High, Sell Higher," a book about the "new rules" of investing, will deliver a keynote address entitled "Everybody Needs a Plan." Hoffstein, co-founder of Newfound Research, a financial technology firm that provides proprietary research and asset allocation models, will host two interactive workshop sessions on the topic of "Backtesting with Integrity."
