PROXY STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

We are sending you this proxy statement on or about April 12, 2006, in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our Board of Directors. The proxies are for use at our 2006 annual meeting of stockholders, which we will hold at 8:30 a.m., local time (EDT), on May 17, 2006, at The Hotel Roanoke and Conference Center, 110 Shenandoah Avenue, NW, Roanoke, Virginia 24016. The proxies will remain valid for use at any meetings held upon adjournment of that meeting. Our address of record is 5673 Airport Road, Roanoke, Virginia 24012, and our telephone number is (540) 362-4911. Unless the context otherwise requires, "Advance," "we," "us," "our," "Company" and similar terms refer to Advance Auto Parts, Inc., its predecessor, its subsidiaries and their respective operations.

The record date for the meeting is March 29, 2006. All holders of record of our common stock on the record date are entitled to notice of the meeting and to vote at the meeting and any adjournment thereof.

A proxy card is enclosed. Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting in person, please date, sign and return the enclosed card as promptly as possible in the postage prepaid envelope provided, or vote your proxy by Internet or telephone by following the instructions on the proxy card to ensure that your shares will be voted at the meeting. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to its use by filing with our corporate secretary an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy card bearing a later date or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

Unless you instruct otherwise in the proxy, any proxy, if not revoked, will be voted at the meeting:

- for our Board of Directors' slate of nominees;
- to ratify the appointment by our Audit Committee of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2006; and
- to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

OUTSTANDING SECURITIES AND VOTING RIGHTS

Our only voting securities are the outstanding shares of our common stock. On the record date, we had 107,919,752 shares of common stock outstanding and 425 stockholders of record. If the stockholders of record present in person or represented by their proxies at the meeting hold at least a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock, or 53,959,877 shares, a quorum will exist to transact business at the meeting. Stockholders of record, who abstain from voting, including brokers holding their customers' shares who cause abstentions to be recorded, are counted as present for quorum purposes.

For each share of common stock you hold on the record date, you are entitled to one vote on each matter that we will consider at this meeting. You are not entitled to cumulate your votes.

If you hold shares through a broker, you should follow the instructions for voting that you receive from your broker. If you want to vote in person, you must obtain a legal proxy from your broker and bring it to the meeting. If you do not submit voting instructions to your broker, your broker may vote on the following matters in its discretion: (1) the election of directors and (2) the ratification of appointment by our Audit Committee of Deloitte & Touche LLP.

The voting requirements for the proposals we will consider at the meeting are:

- Election of directors. Directors are elected by a plurality, and the 10 candidates who receive the most votes will be elected to our Board of Directors. Votes withheld will have no effect on the election of any director.
- Ratification of appointment by our Audit Committee of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2006. An affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares, or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote at the annual meeting will be required to ratify the appointment by our Audit Committee of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2006. Abstentions count as votes cast and have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

We will pay for the cost of preparing, assembling, printing and mailing this proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy to our stockholders, as well as the cost of soliciting proxies relating to the meeting. We may request banks and brokers to solicit their customers who beneficially own our common stock in the names of nominees. We will reimburse these banks and brokers for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for these solicitations. Our officers, directors and employees may supplement these solicitations of proxies by telephone, facsimile, e-mail and personal solicitation. We will pay no additional compensation to our officers, directors or employees for these activities.

Corporate Governance

Majority of Independent Directors

Our Board of Directors, after consultation with and the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, determined that Messrs. Brouillard, Jackson, Oglesby, Ray, Saladrigas, Salter and Ms. Spinelli are each “independent” directors and that Mr. LaHowchic will be an “independent” director under the listing standards of the NYSE, because each of these directors or nominees: (1) has no material relationship with us or our subsidiaries, either directly or indirectly as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with us or our subsidiaries, and (2) satisfies the “bright line independence” criteria set forth in Section 303A.02(b) of the NYSE’s listing standards. The Board of Directors made this determination, after assessing the issue of materiality of any relationship not merely from the standpoint of each director or nominee, but also from that of persons or organizations with which the director or nominee may have an affiliation, based upon all facts and circumstances known to the Board of Directors, including, among other things, a review of questionnaires submitted by these directors and Mr. LaHowchic, an interview with each director or nominee and a review of a recent resume or biography of each director or nominee.

Our Board of Directors reviews each director’s status under this definition annually with the assistance of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Each director is required to keep the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee fully and promptly informed as to any developments that might affect his or her independence.

Meetings of Non-Management Directors

During 2005, the non-management directors on our Board of Directors met a total of five times. In addition, the independent directors met separately one time during 2005. Mr. Salter has served as lead director since May 2004. The lead director was the presiding director at these meetings. For 2006, our non-management directors are scheduled to meet separately in conjunction with each of the five scheduled meetings of the Board of Directors.

Stockholder and Interested Party Communications with our Board of Directors

Communications with our Board of Directors Generally. Stockholders who desire to communicate with our Board of Directors, or with a specific director, including on an anonymous or confidential basis, may do so by delivering a written communication to our Board of Directors, c/o Advance Auto Parts, Inc., 5673 Airport Road, Roanoke, Virginia 24012, Attention: General Counsel. The general counsel will not edit or modify any such communication received and will forward each such communication to the appropriate director or directors, as specified in the communication. If the envelope containing a communication that a stockholder wishes to be confidential is conspicuously marked “Confidential,” the general counsel will not open the communication. Communications will be forwarded by the general counsel to our Board of Directors or any specified directors on a bi-monthly basis. The general counsel will ensure the timely delivery of time sensitive communications to the extent such communication indicates time sensitivity. In addition, we have a policy that each of our directors should make every reasonable effort to attend each annual meeting of stockholders. At our 2005 annual meeting of stockholders, all directors were in attendance.

Interested Party Communications with our Independent Directors. Any interested party, including stockholders, who desire to communicate directly with one or more of the independent directors, including on an anonymous or confidential basis, may do so by delivering a written communication to the independent directors, c/o Advance Auto Parts, Inc., 5673 Airport Road, Roanoke, Virginia 24012, Attention: General Counsel. The general counsel will not open any such communication received and will forward each such communication to the appropriate independent director or directors, as specified in the communication. Such communications will not be disclosed to the non-independent members of our Board of Directors or management unless so instructed by the independent directors. Communications will be forwarded by the general counsel to the independent director or directors, as the case may be, on a bi-monthly basis. The general counsel will ensure the timely delivery of time sensitive communications to the extent such communication indicates time sensitivity.

Stockholder Recommendations for Director Candidates. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider stockholder suggestions for nominees for directors. Any stockholder who desires to recommend a director candidate must submit the recommendation in writing and follow the procedures set forth in our by-laws. The committee does not evaluate any candidate for nomination as a director any differently solely because the candidate was recommended by a stockholder. You may obtain a copy of our by-laws by requesting a copy from our corporate secretary at Advance Auto Parts, Inc., 5673 Airport Road, Roanoke, Virginia 24012. Our by-laws also are available on our web site at www.AdvanceAutoParts.com.

The committee evaluates each candidate for director within the context of the needs of the Board in its composition as a whole. The committee considers such factors as the candidate's business experience, skills, independence, judgment and ability and willingness to commit sufficient time and attention to the activities of the Board. At a minimum, committee-recommended candidates for nomination must possess the highest personal and professional ethics, integrity and values and commit to representing the long-term interests of our stockholders.

Each non-management director may elect to receive all or a portion of their annual retainers and fees on a deferred basis in the form of deferred stock units. Each deferred stock unit is equivalent to one share of our common stock. Deferred stock units are payable in the form of common stock to participating directors at a future date or over a specified period of time as elected by the participating director.

In addition, each non-management director receives the following equity based compensation, which has been adjusted to reflect the 3-for-2 stock split in September 2005:

- upon appointment to the Board, an initial grant of 7,500 options (such options vest over three years and expire after seven years) and 825 deferred stock units (such deferred stock units are fully vested upon grant but are not available for distribution until the director’s service on the Board of Directors ends); and
- an annual grant of 7,500 options and 825 deferred stock units (such grants vest and expire or become payable upon the same terms as the initial grant). Each director’s first annual grant is prorated based upon the number of days served as a director during the year preceding the first annual grant.

In 2005, the Company provided holiday gifts and complimentary hotel accommodation to non-management directors. The value of these personal benefits to any individual director did not exceed $1,300. In addition, the Company presented a gift valued at approximately $6,900 to Mr. Nicholas F. Taubman (see “Related-Party Transactions”) upon his departure from the Board in November 2005.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is required by its charter to pre-approve audit services and permitted non-audit services to be performed by our independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee approved all services provided by Deloitte & Touche LLP during 2005.

In considering the nature of the services provided by Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Audit Committee determined that such services are compatible with the provision of independent audit services. The Audit Committee discussed these services with Deloitte & Touche LLP and management to determine that they are permitted under the rules and regulations concerning auditor independence promulgated by the SEC to implement the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The address of each beneficial owner for which an address is not otherwise indicated is: c/o Advance Auto Parts, Inc., 5673 Airport Road, Roanoke, Virginia 24012. ## AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

We are responsible for providing independent, objective oversight of Advance's accounting functions and internal controls and operate pursuant to a written charter approved by Advance's Board of Directors. We are comprised entirely of three independent directors who meet independence, experience and other qualification requirements of the NYSE listing standards, Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations of the SEC. Advance's Board of Directors has determined the committee's current chair, Mr. Saladrigas, is the Audit Committee "financial expert," as defined by SEC rules.

Management is responsible for Advance's financial reporting process, including Advance's system of internal control, and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Advance's independent registered public accounting firm, or "independent accountants," are responsible for auditing its consolidated financial statements and providing an opinion as to its conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States as well as attesting and reporting on management's assertion regarding the effectiveness of its internal controls over financial reporting. Our responsibility is to monitor and review these processes. It is not our duty or responsibility to conduct auditing or accounting reviews or procedures. Consequently, in carrying out our oversight responsibilities, we shall not be charged with, and are not providing, any expert or special assurance as to Advance's financial statements, or any professional certification as to the independent accountants' work. In addition, we have relied on management's representation that the financial statements have been prepared with integrity and objectively in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, and on the representations of independent accountants included in their report on Advance's financial statements.

During 2005 we met 15 times, including 10 times via conference call. We schedule our meetings to ensure we have sufficient time to devote attention to all of our tasks. During 2005 and subsequent to the end of the year, we:

- appointed Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2005;
- met with management and the independent accountants to review and discuss Advance's critical accounting policies and significant estimates;
- met with management and the independent accountants to review and approve the fiscal year 2005 audit plan;
- met regularly with both the independent accountants and internal audit outside the presence of management;
- met with management and the independent accountants to review the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005, and internal controls over financial reporting as of December 31, 2005;
- reviewed and approved the quarterly and annual reports prior to filing with the SEC;
- reviewed and approved the quarterly earnings press releases and other financial press releases;
- met with the Chief Internal Audit Executive to review, among other things, the audit plan, test work, findings and recommendations, and staffing;
- reviewed the processes by which risk is assessed and mitigated; and
- completed all other responsibilities under the audit committee charter.

We have discussed with the independent accountants the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committee), which includes a review of significant accounting estimates and Advance's accounting practices. We also discussed the effectiveness of internal controls. In addition, we have received written disclosures from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and discussed with independent accountants their firm's independence.

Based upon our discussion with management and the independent accountants, and our review of the representations of management and the independent accountants, we recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in Advance's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

We considered whether the independent accountants' provision of non-audit services to Advance is compatible with maintaining the independent accountants' independence, and have determined the provision of the non-audit services are compatible with the independent accountants' independence. Accordingly, we have approved retention of Deloitte & Touche LLP as Advance's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2006.

We reviewed and reassessed the adequacy of the Audit Committee Charter and recommended changes, which were approved by the Board of Directors.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

We are responsible for the review and determination of compensation awarded to Advance's executive officers (including the named executive officers) and key members of management, including authorizing awards under Advance's long-term incentive plan. We operate under a written Compensation Committee charter adopted by the Board. We met six times during 2005.

Compensation Philosophy

Our general compensation philosophy is to ensure that:

- compensation for executive officers is tied to annual and long-term Company performance goals that are structured to align the interests of executive officers with those of Advance's stockholders;
- a significant portion of total compensation is equity-based, thereby further aligning the interests of executive officers and Advance's stockholders; and
- executive compensation is comparable with compensation levels at major competitors so that Advance can attract, retain and motivate superior management talent who are essential to Advance's long-term success.

There are two primary elements of compensation provided to Advance's executive officers:

- annual compensation, which includes (1) base salary intended to provide a salary at a level consistent with individual contributions, and (2) annual incentive bonuses intended to link annual compensation to Advance's performance; and
- long-term incentive compensation, which includes stock options or other equity-based compensation, intended to encourage the maximization of stockholder value.

Evaluation and Approval of Annual and Long-Term Incentive Compensation

Each year we review and evaluate the compensation programs for executive officers and key members of management. We review information provided by leading executive compensation consultants to establish the appropriate level and basis of base salary, annual bonus opportunity and long-term incentive opportunities for executive officers and other key members of management. We conduct this review near the beginning of each fiscal year, at which time we also approve annual base salaries, criteria for bonus incentive plans and long-term incentive compensation.

We attempt to link executive compensation for each executive officer to those variables over which the executive generally has control. Included in our criteria for making salary adjustments, bonus payments and stock option awards, are achievements against the following targets:

- financial targets, which include growth in the Company's operating income, improvement in operating income margin, revenue growth, comparable store sales growth, and achievement of specified inventory goals; and
- non-financial targets, which include building organizational talent, development and implementation of key operating and strategic business initiatives, and enhancement of management performance throughout the Company.

Annual Compensation

Base Salary. When establishing base salary for each executive officer, we consider Advance's performance, each executive's individual performance and the executive's level of experience, responsibilities and tenure, particularly in relation to other executive officers and key members of management. We aim to position base salaries annually for Advance's executive officers at levels consistent with the median of the retail market.

Annual Incentive Bonus. Advance's bonus plan provides for the payment of cash bonuses based upon Advance's performance in relation to the predetermined financial targets established at the beginning of the year. We aim to establish bonus targets annually at industry median levels, with opportunity above median for corresponding higher performance. The overall bonus potential, calculated as a percentage of base salary, varies depending upon the level of the executive position. For 2005, our named executives' bonus potential ranged from zero to 114% of individuals' bonus targets. The maximum payout required the Company to exceed all predetermined financial targets.

We met in November 2004 and established financial performance targets for 2005, which consisted of operating income, sales growth and achievement of specified inventory goals. These targets are weighted based on the significance of the key performance indicators in driving stockholder value. Excluding the incentive bonuses paid to Mr. Castellani for 2005 and 2004 and to Mr. Coppola for 2005, we approved the payment of incentive bonuses to Advance's named executive officers equal to an aggregate of $1,457,768 in 2005, compared to incentive bonuses of $864,650 for 2004. The magnitude of change between 2004 and 2005 is attributable to changes in size of the executive officer group and improved performance against targets in 2005. We approved the payment of these incentive bonuses based on the level of achievement toward the above pre-established targets.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation

To be competitive in attracting and retaining qualified executive officers and to provide them with performance incentives, we also grant employee stock options to Advance's executive officers under the Advance Long-Term Incentive Plan, approved by shareholders in May 2004. Guidelines for stock option awards are established for positions within the Company based on the expected impact the position has on increasing stockholder value. Individual executives' stock option grants are determined based on recent performance toward specific goals to impact shareholder value. Such specific goals differ among executives, but all measures are related to the enhancement of stockholder value. In 2005, we approved the grant of options to Advance's named executive officers (excluding Messrs. Castellani and Coppola) to purchase 502,500 shares of common stock (post stock-split) compared to the grant in 2004 of options to the named executive officers (excluding Mr. Castellani) to purchase 592,500 shares of common stock (post stock-split).

Chief Executive Officer Compensation for 2005

Our committee is responsible for reviewing the chief executive officer's compensation each year, consistent with the philosophies and goals set forth above. The transition from Mr. Castellani to Mr. Coppola as chief executive officer occurred as planned in May 2005. Mr. Coppola's salary was $450,000 at the beginning of 2005 until he assumed the position of chief executive officer in May 2005, at which time his salary was increased to $750,000. Based on his performance in 2005, Mr. Coppola's salary will be increased to $780,000 effective at the same time of other Team Member salary changes in April 2006.

The chief executive officer's salary is based upon achievement of quantitative and qualitative factors for the fiscal year along with data and expert advice provided by external compensation consultants to the committee. Mr. Coppola's compensation reflects his individual leadership displayed throughout the year and his pay relative to that of chief executive officers of comparable retail companies.

Mr. Coppola and Mr. Castellani had a target bonus opportunity equal to 100% of base salary, with a maximum payout of just over 114% of base salary, based on full year 2005 results. Mr. Coppola was paid $770,849 in 2006 based on the results of fiscal 2005 in accordance with the provisions of the bonus plan and measures approved by us in the beginning of 2005. Mr. Castellani was paid a $275,250 incentive bonus in 2006 for his contribution to our 2005 results during his time as chief executive officer in 2005. This payment was pro-rated for his tenure in position and was based on the bonus plan approved for the position of chief executive officer. Mr. Coppola's bonus opportunity for 2006 provides a maximum 200% of base salary under the provisions of the 2006 bonus plan. Payout of maximum bonus requires that all performance measures be far exceeded.

In recognition of his contribution to the Company's success during his tenure as chief executive officer and his commitment to continue providing leadership as chairman of the Board of Directors, Mr. Castellani received a grant of options to purchase 180,000 shares of common stock in February 2005, at an exercise price of $33.37 per share, as adjusted for the September 2005 stock split. In February 2005, Mr. Coppola received a grant of options to purchase 300,000 shares of common stock, at an exercise price of $33.37 per share, as adjusted for the September 2005 stock split, in anticipation of his assumption of the chief executive officer role in May 2005, and in recognition of his accomplishments of improving organizational effectiveness and operating results as we finished 2004. Mr. Coppola received no other grants in 2005. Mr. Coppola's and Mr. Castellani's option grants vest equally over a three-year period and expire in 2012.

Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

We consider the potential impact of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 162(m) disallows a tax deduction for any publicly held corporation for individual compensation exceeding $1 million in any taxable year for the corporation's named executive officers, other than compensation that is performance-based under a plan that is approved by stockholders and that meets certain other technical requirements. In 2004, Advance's long-term incentive plan was approved by its stockholders in order to exclude from the $1 million limit any performance based compensation resulting from options or other awards granted under the plan to its "named executive officers."

We consider the anticipated tax treatment to Advance and the executive officers in our review and establishment of compensation programs and payments. We intend to structure all compensation payments to meet the requirements of Section 162(m), but may approve compensation payments that may not be tax deductible if we determine that such compensation would be in Advance's best interests and those of its stockholders.

Executive Employment Agreements

Mr. Castellani was appointed our Chief Executive Officer and began employment on February 1, 2000, at which time he signed an employment and non-competition agreement. Mr. Castellani’s employment agreement had an initial term of two years, and renewed automatically each year thereafter unless his employment was terminated by Mr. Castellani or by us. The agreement provided for a base salary of $600,000, subject to annual increases at the discretion of the Board of Directors, and an annual cash bonus based on our achievement of performance targets established by the Board of Directors. In the event Mr. Castellani’s employment was terminated without cause, or he terminated his employment for good reason, as defined in the employment agreement, the agreement provided that he would receive salary through the later of the end of the term of employment or one year from the effective date of termination, less any amounts earned in other employment, and the pro rata share of the bonus due to Mr. Castellani prior to the termination of employment. Mr. Castellani agreed not to compete with us, to preserve our confidential information, not to recruit or employ our employees to or in other businesses and not to solicit our customers or suppliers for competitors until one year after the effective date of termination of his employment. This agreement terminated upon Mr. Castellani’s retirement as our employee in May 2005. Mr. Castellani remained as chairman of the Board subsequent to that date. As compensation for being non-executive chairman, he received a retainer of $125,000 in excess of normal director fees until the May 2006 meeting of the Board.

On April 15, 1998, Messrs. Klasing and Wade entered into employment agreements with us. These agreements contain severance provisions that provide for one year of base salary upon termination of employment, by us without cause or by the employee with good reason as defined in the employment agreement, less any amounts earned in other employment, and the pro rata share of the bonus due to the employee prior to the termination of employment. The agreements extend from year-to-year unless terminated by the employee or us. Other provisions require us to pay bonuses earned by the employee upon our achievement of certain financial targets that are approved by our Board of Directors, and an agreement by the employee not to compete with us, to preserve our confidential information, not to recruit or employ our employees to or in other businesses and not to solicit our customers or suppliers for competitors. In February 2006, the Company notified Messrs. Klasing and Wade of its intention not to renew these agreements upon the expiration of the current term of the agreement on April 15, 2006 in anticipation of entering into new employment agreements.

Effective March 31, 2006, Messrs. Coppola, Klasing, Moore, Mueller, Murray, and Wade entered into employment agreements with the Company. These agreements supersede any existing employment agreements or arrangements. The agreements contain severance provisions that provide for payment of one year of base salary upon termination of employment, by the Company without cause or by the employee with good reason as defined in the employment agreement, and the pro rata share of the bonus and unused vacation due to the employee prior to the termination of employment. The initial term of the agreements is one year, and the agreements extend from year-to-year unless terminated by the employee or the Company. Other provisions require us to pay bonuses earned by the employee upon our achievement of certain financial targets that are approved by our Board of Directors, and an agreement by the employee not to compete with the Company, to preserve our confidential information, not to recruit or employ our employees to or in other businesses and not to solicit our customers or suppliers for competitors during the term of the executive's employment and for one year following termination of employment. In the case of death, a lump sum amount equal to the executive's annual salary shall be paid to his designated beneficiary or estate. In the case of termination of employment due to disability as defined in the agreement, the executive will receive an amount equal to 30 percent of his base salary for a one year period.
