Humana members now have in-network access to additional physicians in Colorado Springs

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Humana Inc. (NYSE: HUM), a leading health and well-being company, has reached an agreement that provides its members in-network access to Mountain View Medical Group in Colorado Springs.

The new network agreement, which is effective Dec. 1, 2019, includes Humana's Medicare Advantage (including PPO, HMO and Private Fee for Service plans) and employer group (commercial) plans, excluding the commercial HMOx plan.

Members of these Humana plans will have access to the provider group's more than 50 primary care and specialty physicians.

"Mountain View Medical Group is a highly-regarded, innovative medical group and we are excited to add them to our network in the Colorado Springs area. Thanks to this new agreement we can substantially increase health care options for our members closer to their home," said Mark Iorio, Central West Region Medicare President for Humana. "We are looking forward to working together to help our Humana members in Colorado Springs get and stay healthy."

Mountain View Medical Group is a physician group serving the Colorado Springs community. The group is made up of over 50 physicians, providing services that include family and internal medicine, OB-GYN, pediatrics, and podiatry. The group has 14 medical office locations and cares for more than 80,000 patients.

As of Sept. 30, 2019, Humana has approximately 183,100 members in Colorado.
