Forward Looking Statements

This material relating to Loblaw Companies Limited and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company” or “Loblaw”) contains forward-looking statements about the Company’s objectives, plans, goals, aspirations, strategies, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, performance, prospects and opportunities. Words such as “anticipate”, “expect”, “believe”, “could”, “estimate”, “goal”, “intend”, “plan”, “seek”, “strive”, “will”, “may” and “should” and similar expressions, as they relate to the Company and its management, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not historical facts but reflect the Company’s current expectations concerning future results and events.

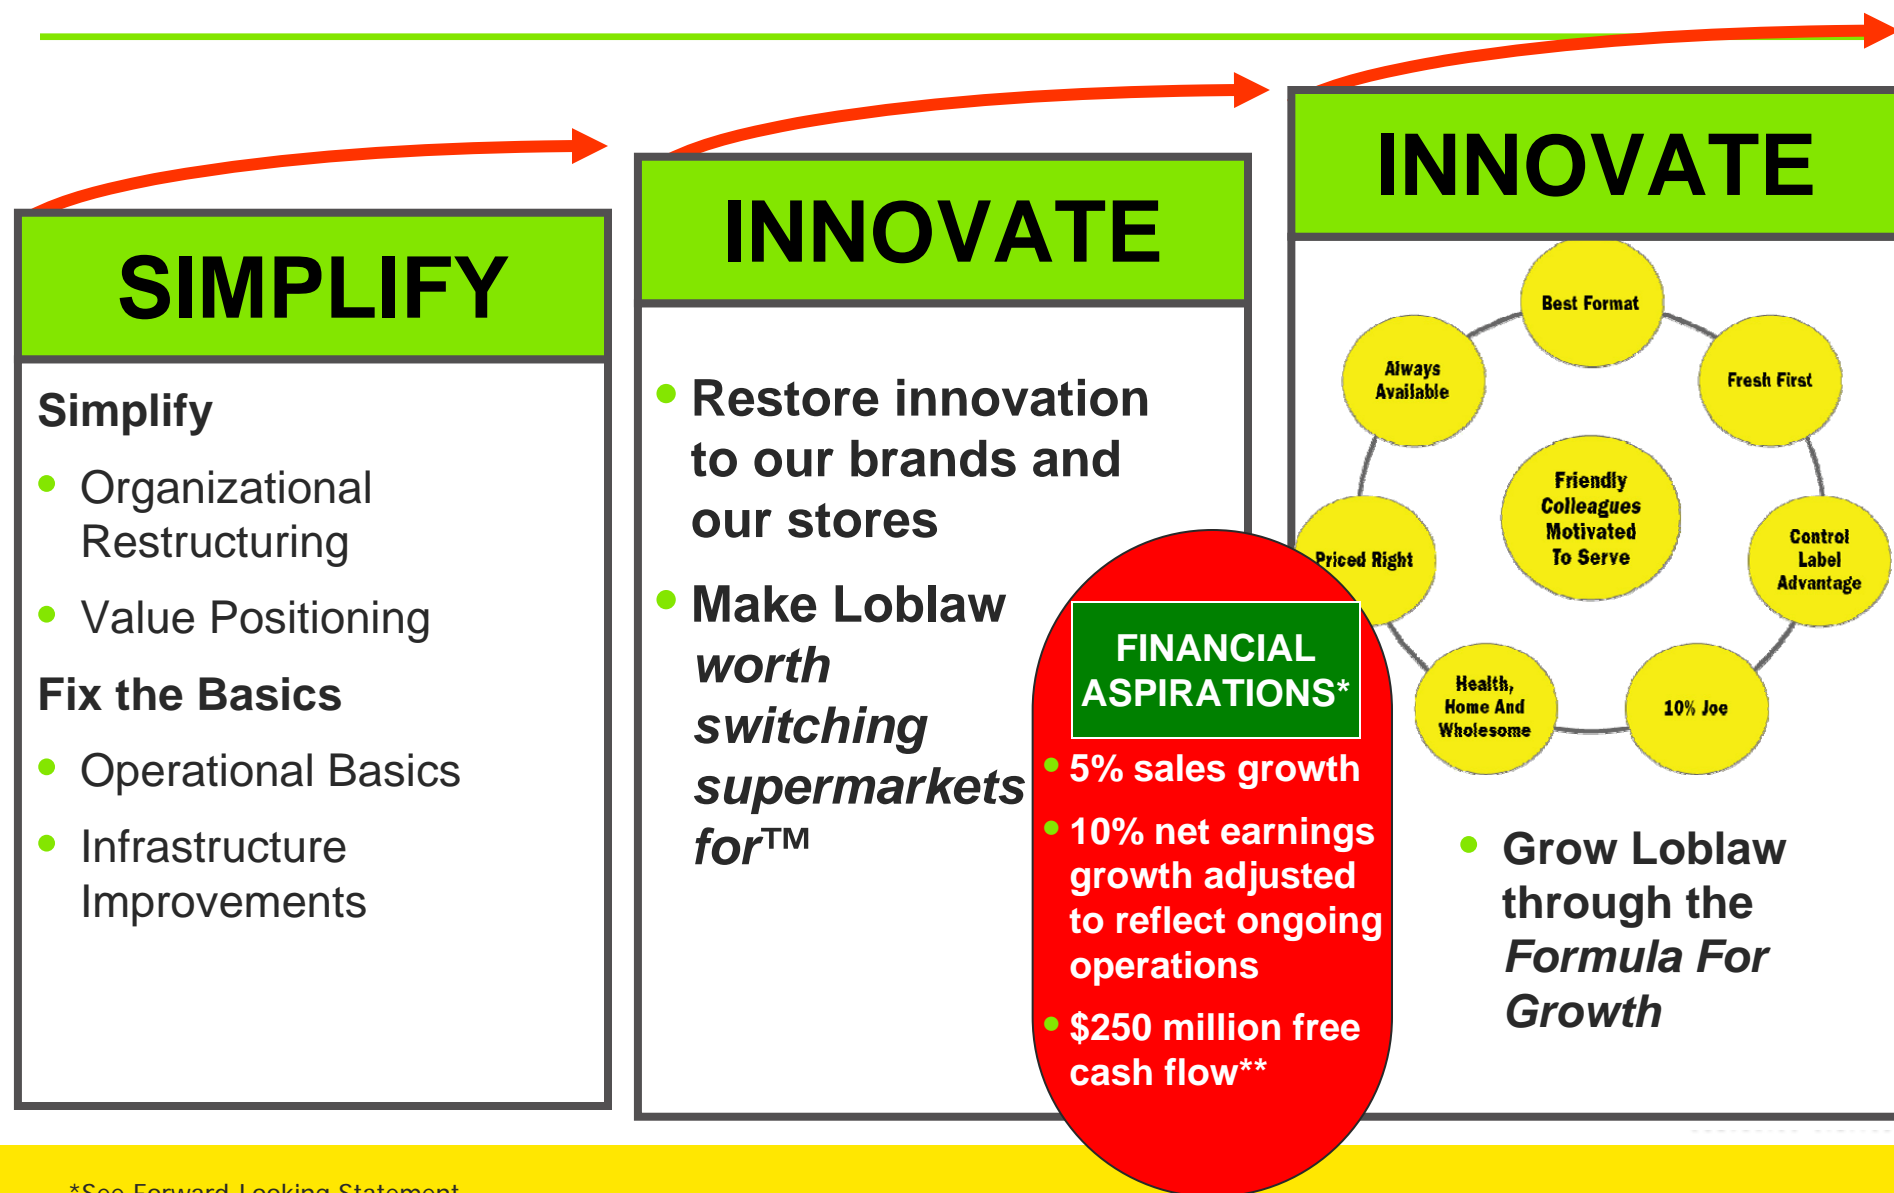

These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from current expectations. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: changes in economic conditions; changes in consumer spending and preferences; heightened competition, whether from new competitors or current competitors; changes in the Company’s or its competitors’ pricing strategies; failure of the Company’s franchised stores to perform as expected; risks associated with the terms and conditions of financing programs offered to the Company’s franchisees; failure to realize anticipated cost savings and operating efficiencies from the Company’s major initiatives, including investments in the Company’s information technology systems, supply chain investments and other cost reduction and simplification initiatives; the inability of the Company’s information technology infrastructure to support the requirements of the Company’s business; the inability of the Company to manage inventory to minimize the impact of obsolete or excess issues and to control shrink; failure to execute successfully and in a timely manner the Company’s major initiatives, including the implementation of strategies and introduction of innovative products; unanticipated costs associated with the Company’s strategic initiatives, including those related to compensation costs; the inability of the Company’s supply chain to service the needs of the Company’s stores; deterioration in the Company’s relationship with its employees, particularly through periods of change in the Company’s business; failure to achieve desired results in labour negotiations, including the terms of future collective bargaining agreements; changes to the regulatory environment in which the Company operates; the adoption of new accounting standards and changes in the Company’s use of accounting estimates including in relation to inventory valuation; fluctuations in the Company’s earnings due to changes in the value of equity forward contracts relating to its common shares; changes in the Company’s tax liabilities resulting from changes in tax laws or future assessments; detrimental reliance on the performance of third-party service providers; public health events; the inability of the Company to obtain external financing; the inability of the Company to attract and retain key executives; and supply and quality control issues with vendors. These and other risks and uncertainties are discussed in the Company’s materials filed with the Canadian securities regulatory authorities from time to time, including the Risks and Risk Management section of the MD&A included in the Company’s 2007 Annual Report. Other risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company or that the Company presently believes are not material could also cause actual results or events to differ materially from those expressed in its forward-looking statements.

Forward Looking Statements

In addition to these risks and uncertainties, the material assumptions used in making the forward looking statements contained herein include: there is no material change in economic conditions; patterns of consumer spending and preferences are reasonably consistent with historical trends; there is no significant change in competitive conditions, whether related to new competitors or current competitors; there is no unexpected change in the Company's or its competitors' current pricing strategies; the Company's franchised stores perform as expected; anticipated cost savings and operating efficiencies are achieved, including those from the Company's cost reduction and simplification initiatives; there is no unexpected change in the Company's access to liquidity; and there are no significant regulatory, tax or accounting changes or other significant events occurring outside the ordinary course of business.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect the Company's expectations only as of the date of this material. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
