SeaWorld Unveils a Coast-to-Coast Live Music Series for 2026

2026-01-14

A nationwide concert lineup brings high-energy performances and crowd-pleasing artists to SeaWorld parks from spring through summer, included with park admission

ORLANDO, Fla. and SAN DIEGO and SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 14, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- SeaWorld returns in 2026 with an expanded, coast-to-coast live music series, building on its established concert programming across U.S. parks and placing live entertainment at the center of the SeaWorld guest experience throughout the spring and summer seasons.

Launching in early 2026 in conjunction with Seven Seas Food Festival and continuing through the summer at select parks, the 2026 series blends nostalgia-driven favorites with contemporary performers, offering guests multiple opportunities to enjoy full-length live concerts throughout the season. The national lineup includes acts such as Flo Rida, Boyz II Men, The Beach Boys, Fitz and the Tantrums, Bow Wow, Soulja Boy, Gene Simmons, Ying Yang Twins, Uncle Kracker, and the Pop 2000 Tour featuring Chris Kirkpatrick of *NSYNC, O-Town, Ryan Cabrera, and LFO, appearing at SeaWorld parks in Orlando, San Diego, and San Antonio.

With concerts included in park admission and available across multiple events and weekends, an Annual Pass offers guests the most flexible way to access the full 2026 concert lineup from the start of the season.

Guests can expect:

- Full-length live concerts on select dates, included with all forms of park admission
- A full-day park experience that pairs food festivals, attractions, and animal encounters with evening live music performances
