Rumbolz's two-year term as AGA Chairman begins January 2024, while he will continue in his current capacity at Everi. Rumbolz served as Everi CEO from May 2016 until April 2022, while also holding the title of President in his first four years as CEO. He has worked for the Company in various capacities since 2005, following the Company's acquisition of Cash Systems, Inc., where he served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Starting as a busboy up to the C-suite, Rumbolz's career spans all levels and aspects of the gaming industry with experience that encompasses gaming equipment manufacturing and distribution; hotel and casino operations; casino FinTech; digital gaming; and gaming legislation and regulation. Rumbolz also previously served as Member and Chairman of the Nevada Gaming Control Board, and Chief Deputy Attorney General of Nevada.

"Mike has had a tremendous influence in building Everi into what it is today, and we are thrilled that he has been chosen as the next Chairman of the AGA," said Everi CEO Randy Taylor. "I look forward to continuing to work closely with Mike as the Executive Chairman at Everi, and I am confident that he will be successful in this additional role as the Chairman of the AGA as he helps to guide the continuing development and growth of the U.S. gaming industry".

"I am grateful for the opportunity to help shape gaming's future as the AGA's next chair," Rumbolz said. "From stopping illegal gambling to further evolving responsible gambling, the AGA is tackling transformational issues, and I am eager to build on the progress made during Jim's tenure."
