Public Storage Recognized as One of the Best Places to Work by Comparably

GLENDALÉ, California—Public Storage (NYSE:PSA), the largest self-storage operator in the nation, has been recognized as one of the best places to work in Comparably’s most recent workplace culture survey.

Public Storage was named in the top three large companies for Best Operations Department, top five as one of the Best Places to Work in Los Angeles, and ranked top 25 for Best Company Outlook.

“Public Storage is committed to being a great place to work to build your career,” said Natalia Johnson, Chief Administrative Officer of the company. “We are honored to be recognized and will continue to foster a culture founded on integrity where our 5,000 plus team of employees are empowered to bring their whole selves to work and realize their potential.”

This set of Comparably Awards is derived from sentiment ratings provided by employees who anonymously rated their employers on Comparably.com during a 12-month period (March 22, 2020 through March 22, 2021), making this list especially relevant for job seekers looking to be part of a great organization.
