Mar 10, 2009

Expands Presence In Western Canada To Enhance Service In Virtual Datarooms, M&A, Debt and Equity Offerings, Private Placements, And Other Transactional And Compliance Communications

CHICAGO & TORONTO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 10, 2009--R.R. Donnelley & Sons Company (NYSE:RRD) announced today that it has opened a new Financial Services office in Calgary, Alberta to better address the financial print and related communications needs of businesses and law firms in western Canada. The Calgary Service Center complements the company's facilities in Toronto and Montreal.

The new Center is centrally located in Calgary's downtown business district and offers convenient access to the company's global typesetting system and other resources to enable around-the-clock customer service and project management. The Center is ideally positioned to meet the region's unique needs for transactional and compliance projects, particularly for businesses and institutions focused on oil & gas, services, mining and technology.

The Service Center is equipped to assist companies and their advisors with M&A, Debt and Equity offerings, Private Placements, Annual Reports, Interim Reports, Notice & Information Circulars, Plan of Arrangements, SEDAR and EDGAR filing requirements including Form 20-F and Form 40-F, Notice to Shareholders and virtual datarooms.

"The Calgary Service Center will open the door for enhanced project execution and greater deal economies for existing RR Donnelley clients and other regional businesses," said Paul Lessard, Director, Western Canada, RR Donnelley's Financial Services offering. "Moreover, the Calgary location is an ideal addition to our existing centers in Toronto and Montreal and will enhance our ability to seamlessly fulfill clients' complex financial printing needs within Alberta, across Western Canada and around the world," added Lessard.

Tom Juhase, President of RR Donnelley's Financial Services offering added, "As our new Calgary Service Center and recent expansion of our commercial printing capability in Canada demonstrate, RR Donnelley is committed to providing our customers in the region with the broadest array of products and services."
