

RR Donnelley Awarded Multiyear Agreement to Provide Printing Services for AT&T Advertising Solutions

Jan 13, 2010

CHICAGO, Jan 14, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- R.R. Donnelley & Sons Company (NASDAQ:RRD) today announced that it has been awarded a multiyear agreement to provide printing services for AT&T Advertising Solutions. The agreement is for printing about 450 directory titles serving consumers and businesses in the Southeast region of the country. Terms of the deal were not disclosed.

The agreement expands a century-long relationship between the two companies. "The cornerstone of our success is providing high value and a competitive edge to our advertisers," said Frank Jules, President and CEO for AT&T Advertising Solutions. "That requires a keen focus on quality and effectiveness in our production processes. RR Donnelley continues to be a partner who understands the importance of supporting that effort."

AT&T Advertising Solutions is the largest publisher of print Yellow Pages in the world, by revenue; it publishes more than 1,250 Yellow Pages titles that are referenced about 3 billion times annually in 22 states.

"We are very proud to expand our relationship with AT&T," said RR Donnelley Chief Operating Officer John Paloian. "As an integrated provider of marketing and communications products and services, we strive to drive innovation and quality on behalf of our customers."
