

Society6 featured in Flaunt

F L A U N T

MAY 31, 2019

THE L WORD COLLECTION | SOCIETY6

BY CHRISTOPHER ANDREW ARMSTRONG

This shouldn't be news for the legions of stans out there, but a sequel to Showtime's groundbreaking and progressive show The L Word premieres this fall and it's calling itself The L Word-Generation Q. For those in the dark, the show, lasting six seasons, centered around a group of fabulous lesbians navigating their way through friendships, relationships, and their careers all the while schmoozing about in West Hollywood.

In loving honor of the show's rebranding, Society6 teams up with Showtime for a collection of exclusive designs inspired by The L Word. From coffee mugs, tote bags, and throw pillows to notebooks and art prints, the collection celebrates the show's legacy while also nodding towards the LGBTQ+ community.

The Society6 artists selected for this collaboration are Maia Faddoul, Mira Mariah, and Sarah Maxwell. A second collection, available closer to the show's premiere, will feature another round of original, The L Word inspired artwork, produced by a different group of artists.

Browse through the collection below and purchase it here

TAGS

The L Word Society6 The L Word-Generation Q LGBTQ+

To view the entire story, visit:

<https://www.flaunt.com/content/the-l-word-society6?rq=society6>