Supply & Demand Chain Executive Names Werner Enterprises Associate a 2022 Women in Supply Chain Winner

9/28/2022

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 28, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), a premier transportation and logistics provider, today announces that Carolyn Barker, Associate Vice President (AVP) of Data Management, Insights and Applications Support, was selected as a recipient of Supply & Demand Chain Executive's Women in Supply Chain award for 2022.

Barker's leadership brings valuable insights to Werner where she helps the Werner EDGE team develop and implement best-in-class solutions and foster a welcoming workplace environment. In her role, Carolyn is responsible for facilitating the 'Cloud First, Cloud Now' initiative and oversees integrations with third-party solutions to ensure they meet the company's objectives.

The Women in Supply Chain award honors female supply chain leaders and executives whose accomplishments, mentorship and examples set a foundation for women in all levels of a company's supply chain network. This year's list includes individuals from software and service providers, consultancies and academia, trucking and transportation firms, professional development agencies, sourcing and procurement divisions, and more.

"This award underlines the dedication, enthusiasm and leadership that Carolyn brings to the Werner EDGE team and the important work she is doing to help Werner stay at the forefront of our industry," said Daragh Mahon, EVP and CIO of Werner Enterprises. "Carolyn serves as one of the many exceptional women we have leading the way at Werner, and we are proud of the example she sets for both women and the industry as a whole."
