The Lake City terminal is part of Werner's commitment to investing in its 5Ts + S strategy, which includes trucks, trailers, talent, terminals and technology, with a focus on driving sustainability as a core component of our efforts. Werner has long understood the value of state-of-the-art terminal facilities in keeping drivers safely on the road while providing a comfortable place to stop. The importance of terminal locations was amplified as the challenges of COVID-19 resonated throughout the country. Terminals became not only a place for truck and trailer maintenance but also served as a distribution hub to get PPE, hand sanitizer and other essentials to drivers.

"This new terminal will be a great addition to a state where so many of our professional drivers reside," said Vice Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer Derek Leathers. "It was important to include significant investments in our terminals as part of our 5Ts + S strategy, and our professional drivers need to have all the resources we can provide them to safely, efficiently and comfortably keep America moving."

The terminal is located at 879 NW Bell Street in Lake City, Florida, 32055. To contact the terminal, please call 386-401-7124.
