Werner® to Ring Nasdaq Closing Bell to Commemorate 70 Years of Service and 40 Years as a Publicly Traded Company

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Werner Enterprises, Inc. (Nasdaq: WERN), a premier transportation and logistics provider, announced it will commemorate two major company milestones on Thursday, Aug. 27, when Chairman and CEO Derek Leathers rings the Closing Bell at the Nasdaq MarketSite in Times Square.

The ceremony will mark Werner's 70th anniversary since its founding in 1956, as well as 40 years as a publicly traded company on the Nasdaq Stock Market. Joining Leathers on stage will be more than 50 Werner associates and truck drivers from across North America.

"Ring the Nasdaq Closing Bell alongside the very people who power our business every day—our drivers and hard-working associates—is an incredible honor," said Leathers. "Seventy years ago, CL Werner started this company with just one truck and a vision. Forty years ago, we took our next big leap by listing on Nasdaq. Standing together this Thursday in Times Square, we celebrate our rich heritage, our growth into a multi-modal powerhouse and the incredible people who make our mission possible every single mile."

Founded in 1956, Werner has grown into an essential solutions provider for customers who value supply chain integrity and require safe, exceptional on-time service. Powered by a modern truck and trailer fleet, more than 14,500 talented associates across North America and innovative Werner EDGE® technology, Werner delivers a comprehensive multi-modal portfolio—spanning Dedicated, Premium Services, Intermodal, Final Mile, Cross-Border

Mexico and Truckload Brokerage operations—giving shippers the flexibility, technology and scale needed to navigate evolving market dynamics.

As Werner looks to the future, the company remains dedicated to its purpose: delivering world-class supply chain solutions to the global marketplace responsibly and safely, while exceeding the expectations of its customers, shareholders and associates.
