Werner Enterprises Honors Drivers and Hosts Live Radio Remote

9/16/2013

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 16, 2014-- Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), hosted a live radio remote at its global headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska, today following a ceremony honoring two professional drivers who achieved safe driving milestones. As part of National Truck Driver Appreciation Week Sept. 14-20, Werner also is hosting lunches and activities at various terminal and dedicated locations throughout the country to give thanks to the more than 3 million professional drivers who keep the country's economy moving.

"We look forward to these opportunities, not just this week but throughout the year, when we can express our gratitude and respect for all of the professional drivers on the road," said President and COO Derek Leathers. "The importance of what they do can never be emphasized enough."

The SiriusXM Radio show "Road Dog Trucking News" aired live from the Conestoga building on the Werner campus. In addition to Leathers, host Mark Willis featured guest speakers Bob Synowicki, executive vice president of Driver Resources; Steve Phillips, senior vice president of Fleet Resources; Jim Morbach, associate director of Government and Field Recruiting; and professional Werner drivers David Conkling, Charley Endorf and Quentin Lee.

"Road Dog Trucking News" is a daily radio show on SiriusXM's Road Dog Trucking Radio on channel 146. Each weekday, the show tackles tough issues facing today's truckers and invites industry executives and experts to weigh in while keeping drivers informed of all the latest and pertinent trucking news.
