Werner Enterprises Supports UNO Students Pursuing Logistics, Supply Chain and Technology Careers

9/18/2019

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 18, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Werner Enterprises (NASDAQ: WERN), a premier transportation and logistics provider, is honored to support students at the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) pursuing careers in supply chain management, logistics and information technology with a philanthropic investment in UNO's College of Information Science and Technology and the supply chain management program in UNO's College of Business Administration.

"We are proud to promote industry innovation through our partnership with a fellow Omaha-area organization with the common goal of strengthening Omaha as a premier employment destination," said President and Chief Executive Officer Derek Leathers. "There is a growing need for talent with technical specialization and this investment reflects Werner's commitment to becoming an employer of choice for supply chain management, logistics and information technology professionals."

Werner's monetary gift to the University of Nebraska Foundation establishes three funds to support a range of UNO student-focused programs, curriculum and events at both the collegiate and secondary education levels. The inaugural Werner Enterprises Lectureship at UNO will feature Werner President and CEO Derek Leathers on April 24, 2020.
