Werner professional driver Tim Dean wins 2019 International Driver Excellence Award from the Commercial Vehicle Safety Alliance.

Since joining Werner in 1988, Dean has served as a 2009-2010 American Trucking Associations America's Road

Team captain, a Werner Road Team captain since 2005 and accomplished the rare safety milestone of driving four million accident-free miles.

“It is an honor to recognize Tim’s outstanding leadership, commitment to safety and continuous efforts to improve the transportation industry,” said President and CEO Derek Leathers. “Tim has demonstrated an exemplary commitment to public safety throughout an exceptional career as a professional driver.”

The annual International Driver Excellence Award was established in 2015 to honor individuals who go above and beyond the performance of their duties as a commercial motor vehicle driver. Dean is the second Werner driver to win the award as five million accident-free miles driver Charles Endorf was named the winner in 2017. Dean will receive the award during the 2019 CVSA Workshop in St. Louis, Missouri, on April 1, 2019.
