

PRIVACY NOTICE

Oxford Square Capital Corp.

Effective Date: July 22, 2021

Your privacy is very important to us. This Privacy Notice sets forth Oxford Square Capital Corp.'s ("our," "we," or "Oxford Square") policies with respect to personal information we collect and process ("Notice"). This Notice applies to investors, prospective investors, and former investors in Oxford Square, as well as to visitors of our website and applicants for employment with us.

1. Data Controller

To the extent the GDPR applies, and for other data privacy laws with a data controller requirement, Oxford Square is the data controller that directs the purposes for which personal information is processed.

Oxford Square is located at: 8 Sound Shore Drive - Suite 255, Greenwich, CT 06830

We will use personal information about you only for the purposes and in the manner set forth below, which describes the steps we take to ensure the processing of personal information is in compliance with applicable data protection law, including California's Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA") and the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR").

2. Information we collect

We collect personal information from a number of sources, including:

It is also processed to detect security incidents, protect against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent or illegal activity, and for data analytics. It is also necessary to ensure compliance with our policies and procedures.

3. Sharing your personal information

We may share your personal information with our adviser, Oxford Square Management, LLC, and to certain service providers such as our accountants, administrator, attorneys, auditors, transfer agents and brokers, in each case for our everyday business purposes, such as to facilitate the acceptance and management of your investment or account and our relationship with you, or as otherwise permitted by applicable law. We will take reasonably necessary steps to ensure that where personal information is shared, it is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Notice and applicable laws. We require our service providers to provide written assurances regarding the security and privacy protections they have in place to protect any personal information transferred or disclosed to them, as well as their compliance with our security requirements and any applicable laws and regulations.

We may also disclose the information we collect:

- If you request or authorize disclosure of the information, in each case in accordance with the agreements governing your investment;
- As required by law - for example, to cooperate with any government regulators, self-regulatory organization or law enforcement authorities;
- As otherwise permitted by law - for example, (i) to service providers who maintain, process or service our funds; (ii) in connection with the making, management or disposition of any fund investment; (iii) as otherwise necessary to effect, administer or enforce investment or fund transactions; or (iv) in connection with a sale or other transfer of our public entities. We may also share information with attorneys, accountants, other service providers and with persons otherwise acting in a representative or fiduciary capacity on behalf of investors or the funds;
- We may share information with service providers that perform marketing services on our behalf.

We do not, and will not, sell personal information to third parties, as that term is defined by California law, nor have we done so in the past 12 months. In addition, we do not share personal information with third parties for their direct marketing purposes.

4. Retention of your personal information

As a general principle, we do not retain your personal information for longer than we need it. We keep your personal information only for as long as it is required to provide our services, perform our contractual obligations, or to meet our statutory or regulatory requirements. We typically delete personal information about you 6 years after you are no longer our client.

5. Your rights regarding your personal information

Depending on where you live, your current jurisdiction and applicable data protection laws, and subject to any relevant restrictions/exemption, you may be entitled to certain rights with regards to our processing of your personal information. (Please note: depending on the country you live in and the applicable data protection laws, you may only have access to some of the rights listed below).

Your rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA”)

To the extent we have collected information about you that is not governed by the GLBA or FCRA, you may have the rights described below with respect to personal information about you, residents of California may have certain data protection rights under CCPA relating to certain personal information, including:

Right of access – You may be entitled to request that we disclose the categories and specific pieces of personal information that we have collected about you, the categories of sources from which the information was collected, the purposes of collecting the information, the categories of third parties we have shared the information with, and the categories of personal information that have been shared with third parties for a business purpose.	Right to “opt-out” of a sale of personal information – if our business practices change and we sell personal information you will be provided with notice and be given the opportunity to opt out of the sale of your personal information.
Right of data portability – In some instances, you may have the right to receive the information about you in a portable and readily usable format. Before providing this information, we must be able to verify your identity akin to the request.	Right to have personal information erased – Subject to certain conditions, you may be entitled to request that we delete personal information that we hold. We will not delete personal information about you when the information is required to fulfill a legal obligation, is necessary to exercise or defend legal claims, or where we are required or permitted to retain the information by law. For example, we cannot delete information about you while continuing manage your account or investment. Data solely retained for data backup purposes is principally excluded.

You may also appoint an authorized agent to make a request on your behalf.

If you chose to exercise any of these rights, to the extent that they apply, U.S. state law prohibits us from discriminating against you on the basis of choosing to exercise the privacy rights.

We may, however, charge a different rate or provide a different level of service to the extent permitted by law.

Your GDPR rights

To the extent the GDPR applies, data subjects of the EU/UK may have certain rights, including:

the right to access your personal data	the right to restrict the use of your personal data
the right to have incomplete or inaccurate data corrected	the right to ask us to stop processing your personal data
the right to require us to delete your personal data in some limited circumstances	the right to object to processing of your personal data where that processing is carried out for our legitimate interest or for direct marketing
the right in some circumstances to request for us to “port” your personal data in a portable, re-usable format to other organizations (where this is possible)	the right to lodge a complaint about the processing of your personal data with your local data protection authority the right to request information, with respect to our practices within the 12 months prior to your request, regarding the specific personal data we have collected from you, the sources from which we obtained it, the purposes for which we collected, used and shared the personal data, and the categories of third parties with whom we have shared it

You may exercise your right to make these requests/objections by contacting us at 1-203-983-5275 or sending us an email at privacy@oxfordfunds.com at any time if you wish to do so.

6. Submitting Requests

To exercise your rights to request information or the deletion of your personal information, please contact us at 1-203-983-5275, or send us an email at privacy@oxfordfunds.com at any time if you wish to do so.

Before providing information requests in accordance with your rights, we must be able to verify your identity. In order to verify identity, you will need to submit information about yourself, including, to the extent applicable, account information, name, government identification number, date of birth, contact information, or other personal information. We will match this information against information we have previously collected about you to verify your identity and request.

Please note that under California law, we are only obligated to respond to personal information requests from the same consumer up to two times in a 12-month period. Under both EU and California law, if an individual makes unfounded, repetitive, or excessive requests (as determined in our reasonable discretion) to access Personal Data, we may charge a fee subject to a maximum set by law.

If you would like to appoint an authorized agent to make a request on your behalf, you must provide the agent with written, signed permission to submit privacy right requests on your behalf, or provide a letter from your attorney. The agent or attorney must provide this authorization at the time of request. We may require you to verify your identity with us directly before we provide any requested information to your approved agent.

Information collected for purposes of verifying your request will only be used for verification.

If you chose to exercise any of these rights, to the extent that they apply, U.S. state law prohibits us from discriminating against you on the basis of choosing to exercise your privacy rights. We may, however, charge a different rate or provide a different level of service to the extent permitted by law.

We are, of course, happy to provide any further information or explanation needed.

7. Cookies

A cookie is a small piece of data that a website asks your browser to store on your computer or mobile device. The cookie allows the website to “remember” your actions or preferences over time. Cookies are widely used in order to make websites work, or to work more efficiently, as well as to provide reporting information. Some cookies are strictly necessary for the functioning of our website.

Why do we use cookies?

We use cookies to learn how you interact with our content and to improve your experience when visiting our website. For example, some cookies remember your preferences and where you left off so that you do not have to repeatedly make these choices when you visit one of our websites.

What types of cookies do we use?

Third-party cookies belong to and are managed by other parties, such as Google Analytics. These cookies may be required to render certain forms, such as email list sign-up. Session cookies are temporary cookies that are used to remember you during the course of your visit to the website, and they expire when you close the web browser. Persistent cookies are used to remember your preferences within the website and remain on your desktop or mobile device even after you close your browser or restart your computer. We use these cookies to analyze user behavior to establish visit patterns so that we can improve our website functionality for you and others who visit our website.

How do I reject and delete cookies?

You can choose to reject or block all or specific types of cookies for FIA by changing your browser settings. Please note that most browsers automatically accept cookies. Therefore, if you do not wish cookies to be used, you may need to actively delete or block the cookies. If you reject the use of cookies, you will still be able to visit our websites but some of the functions may not work correctly. You may also visit www.allaboutcookies.org for details on how to delete or reject cookies and for further information on cookies generally. By using our website without deleting or rejecting some or all cookies, you agree that we can place those cookies that you have not deleted or rejected on your device.

8. Safeguards and Compliance

We implement and maintain security appropriate to the nature of the personal information that we collect, use, retain, transfer or otherwise process, and will take reasonable steps to protect your personal information against loss or theft, as well as from unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification, regardless of the format in which it is held. While we are committed to developing, implementing, maintaining, monitoring and updating a reasonable information security program. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Data security incidents and breaches can occur due to vulnerabilities, criminal exploits or other factors that cannot reasonably be prevented. Accordingly, while our reasonable security program is designed to manage data security risks and thus help prevent data security incidents and breaches, it cannot be assumed that the occurrence of any given incident or breach results from our failure to implement and maintain reasonable security.

9. Do Not Track Signals

Various third parties are developing or have developed signals or other mechanisms for the expression of consumer choice regarding the collection of information about an individual consumer's online activities over time and across third-party website or online services (e.g., browser do not track signals). Currently, we do not monitor or take any action with respect to these signals or other mechanisms.

10. Children

We do not offer financial services and products to minors and do not knowingly collect personal information from children under the age of 16. We will delete any personal information we determine to have been collected from a child or user under the applicable age of consent. If you are a parent or guardian of a child under the relevant digital age of consent and believe he or she has disclosed personal information to us, please contact us at 1-203-983-5275 or send us an email at privacy@oxfordfunds.com.

11. Changes to this Notice

We reserve the right to modify this Notice at any time and without prior notice. Updated privacy policies will be made available through our websites. We will comply with applicable data privacy laws when making changes to our privacy practices. The date at the top of this privacy policy indicates the date when the policy was last updated and the updates went into effect.

12. Questions

If you have any questions regarding this policy or the treatment of your non-public personal information, please contact us at 203-983-5275 or send us an email at privacy@oxfordfunds.com.
