

Filippo Th. Beck

Filippo Th. Beck is a partner in the Private Clients business group and advises in banking and financial markets law. As a counsel of choice, he advises entrepreneurs, companies and individuals on a wide range of issues, with a special focus on contract law, inheritance law, asset structuring, sports law and compliance. Where necessary, he draws on the expertise of specialists in other disciplines to ensure integrated advice on national and international legal issues.

Filippo Th. Beck has been appointed by FINMA as an investigating agent for banks and financial institutions.

Career

1980	University of Basel (lic.iur.) Prediploma Accounting School, Berne (alongside studies) Associated with Coopers & Lybrand, Geneva
1982	Associated with the Civil Court and Appeal Court Basel-City as well as Liatowitsch, Bernstein, Liatowitsch and Günzburger, Basel
1985	Bar exam of the Canton of Basel-City
1987	Bar exam Connecticut, Master of Comparative Jurisprudence at the New York University, School of Law
1988	Bar exam New York
1988	Associate Lenz & Staehelin, Zurich
1993	Attorney at Law Wenger Plattner
1996	Partner Wenger Plattner

Practice areas	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Private Clients- Banking and Finance- Corporate and Commercial
-----------------------	--

Functions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Numerous board memberships- Recognized issuers' representative at the SIX Swiss Exchange- Relevant member resp. foundation board member of various nonprofit institutions
------------------	---

Languages	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- German, English, French, Italian
------------------	--