AGM Frequently Asked Questions

March/April 2022

English

1. Why are you still hosting an AGM if shareholders are not able to attend in person?
   - Swiss law requires the Company to hold an annual meeting. As a result of the continuing tense situation due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, the Board of Directors decided that the 2022 Annual General Meeting of Alcon Inc. will be held without the personal attendance of shareholders. Therefore, shareholders are directed to send in their proxy instructions to the independent representatives (Hartmann Dreyer Attorneys-at-Law).

2. Why did you not choose to host a virtual AGM like other companies are doing?
   - Swiss law currently does not permit the hosting of a virtual AGM.

3. Can I vote using a power of attorney?
   - Votes cannot be determined without granting power of attorney to the independent representatives.

4. Can I submit my vote on your website? What is the deadline for voting?
   - Shareholders may register using the e-voting platform via www.gvote.ch to issue voting instructions to the independent representative.
   - Holders of shares in the United States should follow the instructions provided by their brokers, trustees, nominees or the Company's transfer agent, as applicable.
   - The deadline for casting your vote for the 2022 Annual General Meeting is 11:59 pm on April 24, 2022.

5. How much is the dividend? When will the dividend be paid? How will I receive the money?
   - The Board has proposed a dividend of CHF 0.20 per share, subject to shareholder approval. If approved, Alcon shareholders as of the last cum dividend date (expected to be May 2, 2022) will receive the dividend approximately by May 5, 2022.
