

LIGHTSPEED POS INC.
RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. GENERAL

1. Mandate and Purpose of the Committee

The purpose of the Risk Committee (the "Committee") is to assist the board of directors (the "Board") of Lightspeed POS Inc. (the "Company") in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to the identification, assessment, management, and reporting of key risks to which the Corporation is exposed, and the development of mitigation strategies for the management of those risks.

2. Authority of the Committee

- (a) The Committee has the authority to delegate to subcommittees, provided however that the Committee shall not delegate any power or authority required by any law, regulation, rule or listing standard to be exercised by the Committee as a whole.
- (b) The Committee has the authority, and the Company will provide it with proper funding to enable it, to:
 - (i) engage independent counsel and other advisors as it determines necessary or advisable to carry out its duties and to set and pay the compensation for any such advisors;
 - (ii) conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of matters within the scope of the Committee's responsibilities; and
 - (iii) to obtain information it requires from employees, officers, directors and external parties.
- (c) The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any consultant, independent legal counsel or other advisor retained by the Committee.
- (d) In selecting independent counsel or another advisor, the Committee shall consider all factors relevant to that advisor's independence from management, though nothing herein requires such advisor to be independent, only that the Committee consider relevant independence factors before selecting or receiving advice from the advisor.

II. PROCEDURAL MATTERS

1. Composition

The Committee will be composed of a minimum of 3 members, the greater of (a) a majority of whom and (b) such number of whom as is required by applicable laws, regulations, rules and listing standards qualify as "independent" as such term is defined by applicable laws, regulations, rules and listing standards.

2. Member Qualifications

- (a) Every Committee member must be a director of the Company.
- (b) Every Committee member must be qualified to serve on the Committee pursuant to the requirements of any applicable law, regulation, rule or listing standard.

3. Member Appointment and Removal

Committee members will be appointed by the Board. The members of the Committee will be appointed promptly after each annual shareholders' meeting and will hold office until a successor is appointed, they are removed by the Board or they cease to be directors of the Company.

Where a vacancy occurs at any time in the membership of the Committee, it may be filled by the Board on the recommendation of the Committee and will be filled by the Board if the membership of the Committee falls below 3 directors.

4. Committee Structure and Operations

(a) Chair

The Board will appoint one Committee member to act as its chair (the "Chair"), provided that if the Board does not so designate a Chair, the Committee, by a majority vote, may designate a Chair. The Chair may be removed at any time at the discretion of the Board. The incumbent Chair will continue in office until a successor is appointed or he or she is removed by the Board or ceases to be a director of the Company. If the Chair is absent from a meeting, the Committee will, by majority vote, select another Committee member to preside at that meeting.

(b) Meetings

The Chair will be responsible for developing and setting the agenda for Committee meetings and determining the time, place and frequency of Committee meetings, provided that any two members of the Committee may call a Committee meeting.

(c) Notice

Notice of the time and place of every Committee meeting will be given verbally or in writing to each member of the Committee and to the Chief Executive Officer

("CEO"), the Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") and the President of the Company at least 24 hours prior to the time fixed for such meeting.

(d) Quorum

A majority of the Committee constitutes a quorum. No business may be transacted by the Committee except by resolution in writing signed by all the Committee members or at a Committee meeting at which a quorum of the Committee is present in person or by means of such telephonic, electronic or other communication facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously. At Committee meetings, Committee actions shall require approval of a majority of Committee members.

(e) Attendees

The Committee may invite any directors, officers and employees of the Company and any advisors as it sees fit from time to time to attend Committee meetings (or any part thereof) and assist in the discussion and consideration of matters relating to the Committee. The Committee will meet in camera at each meeting.

(f) Secretary

The Committee will appoint a secretary to the Committee who need not be a director or officer of the Company.

(g) Records

Minutes of Committee meetings will be recorded and maintained by the Committee's secretary and will be presented to the Chair for review and approval.

5. Committee and Charter Review

The Committee will annually review and assess its performance, effectiveness and contribution, including an evaluation of whether this Charter appropriately addresses the matters that are and should be within its scope. The Committee will conduct such review and assessment in such manner as it deems appropriate and report the results thereof to the Board, including any recommended changes to this Charter and to the Company's policies and procedures.

6. Reporting to the Board

The Committee will report to the Board in a timely manner with respect to each of its meetings held. This report may take the form of circulating copies of the minutes of each meeting held.

III. RESPONSIBILITIES

1. General

In addition to such other duties and responsibilities as may from time to time be expressly assigned to the Committee by the Board, the Committee is responsible for:

- (a) overseeing legal and regulatory compliance and the effectiveness of the Company's compliance and enterprise risk management practices, including reviewing reports provided at least annually by management on the risks inherent in the Company's business (including crisis preparedness, information system controls, business continuity, cybersecurity and disaster recovery);
- (b) monitoring the Company's risk profile and its ongoing and potential exposure to risks of various types;
- (c) communicating formally and informally with the executive team and risk managers regarding risk governance and oversight;
- (d) providing input to the Company on risk disclosures in financial reporting and other public statements regarding risk; and
- (e) reviewing and discussing with the Company the strategies developed by the Company for the identification, assessment, mitigation and management of the key risks to which the Company is or may be exposed, and regularly reviewing such strategies.

2. Risk Management and Compliance

The Committee is responsible for:

- (a) reviewing, with Company counsel, compliance and legal matters that could have a significant impact on the Company, including pending or threatened material litigation, and using judgment to identify such matters to the Audit Committee where they could have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements or on its corporate reputation;
- (b) discussing the Company's policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management, including the Company's insurance coverage;
- (c) in consultation with management, identifying the principal business, financial and reputational risks, deciding on the Company's "appetite" for such risks, and, with respect to financial risks, using judgment to report such risks to the Audit Committee; and
- (d) making recommendations on the Company's risk management practices.

3. Enterprise Risk Management Framework

The Committee is responsible for:

- (a) developing an enterprise risk management framework ("ERM Framework") for approval by the Board. The ERM Framework will include:
 - (i) a risk management policy outlining the responsibilities and reporting framework related to risks taken on by the Company;
 - (ii) a risk management process setting forth the approach to risk assessment, the risk approach and philosophy, as well as the various responsibilities and ownership for risk management within the Company; and
 - (iii) a risk register identifying the top ten risks faced by the Company, together with policies, processes and procedures in place to mitigate such risks; and
- (b) receiving reports on the effectiveness of the ERM Framework, regularly assessing the effectiveness of the ERM Framework, and recommending to the Company any changes that are considered advisable; and
- (c) reviewing the ERM Framework at least once per year.

4. Other Responsibilities

The Chair of the Committee is responsible for setting forth the Committee's expectations with respect to information (e.g., nature, level of detail, timing, reports, etc.) and ensuring the information received is responsive to important performance measures and to the key risks the Committee oversees. The Committee is responsible for, and has the explicit authority, to investigate any matters that fall within the Committee's responsibilities.

5. Limitation on Duties of the Committee

The Committee shall discharge its responsibilities and shall assess the information provided by the Company's management and any external advisors in accordance with its business judgment. Committee members are not full-time Company employees. The authority and responsibilities set forth in this Charter do not create any duty or obligation of the Committee to provide any expert or special assurance as to internal controls or management of risk. Committee members are entitled to rely, absent knowledge to the contrary, on the integrity of the persons from whom they receive information and on the accuracy and completeness of the information provided.

Nothing in this Charter is intended or may be construed as to impose on any Committee member or the Board a standard of care or diligence that is in any way more onerous or extensive than the standard to which the directors are subject under applicable law. This Charter is not intended to change or interpret the Company's amended articles of incorporation or by-laws or any law, regulation, rule or listing standard to which the Company is subject, and this Charter should be interpreted in a manner consistent with all such applicable laws, regulations, rules and listing standards. The Board may, from time to time, permit departures from the terms hereof, either prospectively or retrospectively, and no provision contained herein is intended to give rise to civil liability to Company securityholders or other liability whatsoever.
